

ALIENISTS END TESTIMONY IN MURDER TRIAL

Boyhood Friends of Loeb
and Leopold Now
Take Stand.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—The alienists with their ponderous conclusions and their long winded names for things left the center of the stage in the Leopold-Loeb trial today and in their stead came friends and relatives of the two youthful slayers to tell Judge John R. Caverly how queer Babe and "Dicky" have been since childhood.

For an entire week the witness box in Judge Caverly's courtroom has been occupied by a succession of solemn visaged scientists. They have spread loads of words into the records of this most unusual trial.

Today came the unsentimental friends and relatives of the pair. They came to testify to the facts concerning the boyish delinquencies of Babe and Dicky, to give eye witness testimony to the little thoughts acts years ago that the alienists have pointed to twisted philosophies, distorted ideas of right and wrong, which resulted finally in the murder of 14 year old Bobby Franks.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Bernard Glueck, psychoanalyst of New York, an alienist for the defense, testified at the hearing of Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb before Justice Caverly that Loeb struck the blows that caused the death of young Robert Franks.

Up to this time each of the boys had blamed the other for the actual attack upon Robert with the taped chisel. Heretofore other doctors had said they "believed" Loeb had dealt the blows.

Dr. Glueck was stopped by Benjamin Bachrach, a defense attorney, with the question: "Did you talk with Loeb about who struck the blow?" "Yes, Loeb told me he struck the blows himself," the doctor replied.

Dr. Glueck went on to describe Loeb's lack of emotion in telling his own story of the crime. "He told all of the gruesome details of the Franks murder," the doctor said. "He told it all to me as a matter of fact incident, explaining how he and Leopold stopped off in their automobile for a light lunch while automobiling."

The doctor continued: "I was particularly interested in the disparity between his telling of the crime and his utter lack of normal human feeling. I have examined more than 2,000 criminals, and I have never seen such a remarkable situation except in those cases where the criminal had a disordered mind. I have been watching in court for a number of days and I could not help but notice how he sat and listened to the arguments intended for the purpose of hanging him without showing the least emotion. It seemed almost as though he were sitting in a theater watching a college play or something of the sort."

Shows No Remorse.
Dr. Glueck went over the ground covered by Drs. Healy and White, corroborating their findings. Dr. Glueck added that the failure of Loeb to show remorse or sorrow was "incomprehensible" to him.

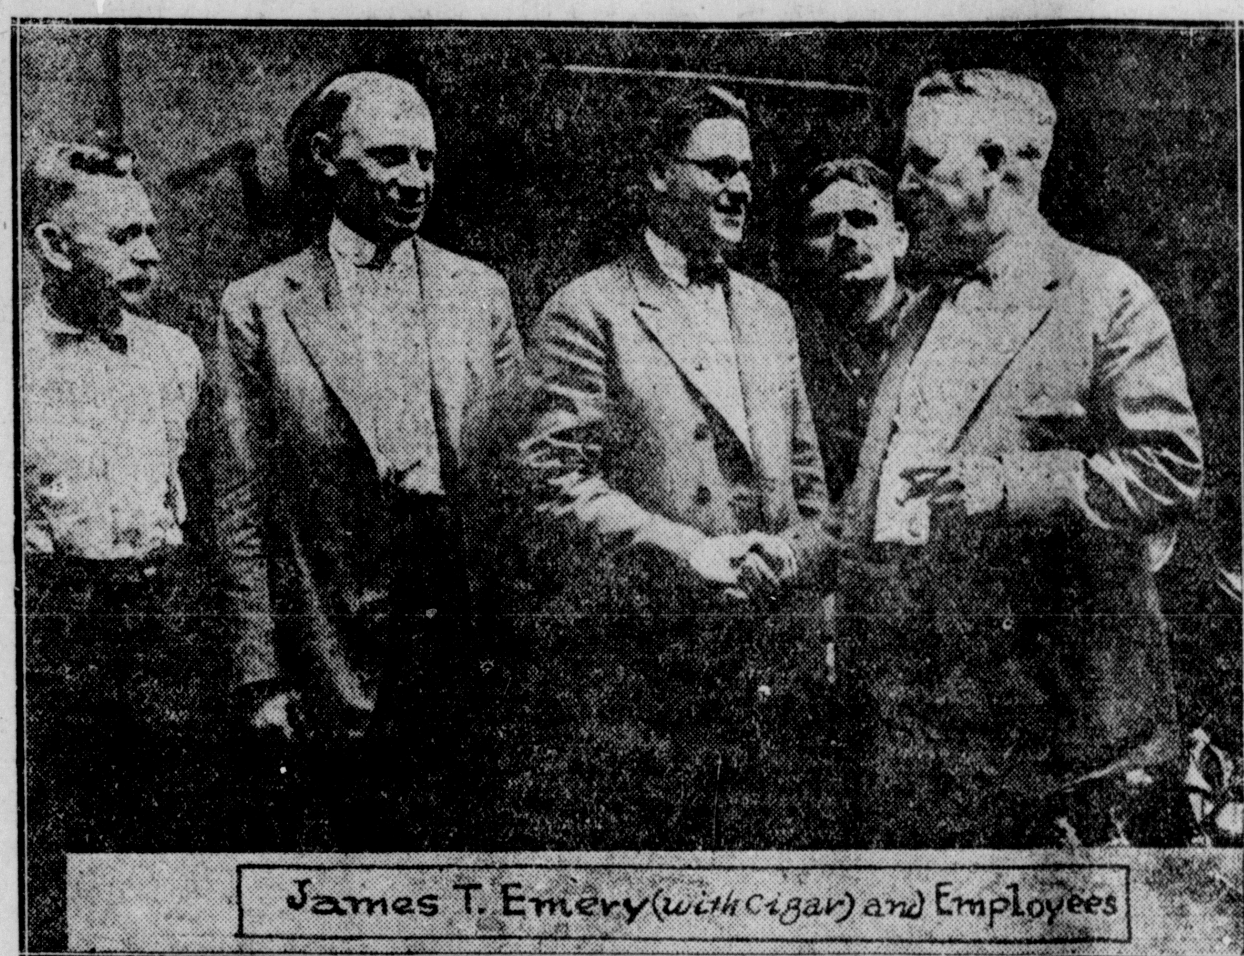

Leopold, the witness said, showed extreme mental activity and unusual intelligence. "I was particularly attracted," Dr. Glueck said, "by the fact as built up his own philosophy of and according to this philosophy actions are justified which give pleasure. Even murder itself is justified by the fact that the murderer is a pleasurable sensation, according to his philosophy."

Early in life Leopold set out to kill human emotions, sympathy and kindness, Dr. Glueck said. At the time during the conversations Leopold and the doctor had, Leopold himself expressing sympathy for his family. "Leopold implicitly apologized for this exhibition of sympathy," the witness said, "two slayers continue to show action concerning the punishment that awaits them. 'Whatever Caverly gives us, I guess will be right,' Loeb said today. 'If Caverly says I must be hanged, I be hanged, that's all. I feel we have committed a crime and been caught. If the law feels should be punished, even to the sentence, I guess it will have all right. It is done and that's there is to it.'"

Woman, giving her name as Mrs. L. L. Houston, Tex., was arrested and taken to the psychiatric hospital here for "attempted interference with a court of justice," when she forced her way into the chambers Justice Caverly and attempted to tell him how to dispose of the Leopold-Loeb murder hearing. Judge Caverly ordered a bailiff to arrest the woman. She was taken to the psychiatric hospital for examination.

Miller, his nearest opponent. The vote stood: Baker, 105,572; Miller, 70,345; Lloyd, 68,021. Returns from 8,035 precincts give Dr. Arthur W. Nelson of Buncheon a plurality of 59,000 in the Democratic contest. The results show: Nelson, 123,141; Jacobs, 64,141; Wright, 44,481; Moore, 41,005; and 1,000,000.

BREAK COMES IN EXTREME HEAT WAVE

WASHINGTON D. C. AND PHOENIX IN MERCURY RACE

Many Prostrations Reported—Temperature 106
At Phoenix

Washington, Aug. 7.—Phoenix, Arizona and Washington, D. C., were running a neck and neck race today to see which could attain the highest temperature during the great heat wave which is now sweeping the country from the Atlantic to the Rocky mountains.

During the past 24 hours, Phoenix was the hottest place in the United States, the official temperature being 106 degrees. Washington was close second with an official temperature of 102 degrees and an unofficial temperature of 106 degrees, the same as Phoenix.

No relief from the heat was promised before another day and night, when the temperature and humidity in most parts of the country will return to summer normal, but even then it will not be much cooler, according to the weather bureau.

Twenty-five heat prostrations have been reported in Washington since Wednesday morning and, as soon as the sun came up over the Maryland hills this morning the hospitals again began to get busy with calls from various parts of the city where persons had succumbed to the heat.

Work in several government bureaus which are located in wooden buildings has been suspended until the heat subsides, until the postoffice department, concluding that it was too hot for the mail carriers to make more than a minimum number of trips about the hot streets during the day has suspended part of the mail deliveries.

With Phoenix and Washington leading the heat sweepstakes, Baltimore is in third place with a temperature around 102 degrees and Parkersburg, W. Va., fourth with a temperature of 98.

The Pacific coast is escaping most of the heat wave, a temperature of only 82 degrees being reported from San Francisco. Chicago has also found relief by rains during the past 24 hours.

Zanesville, O., Aug. 7.—After sweltering through the hottest night for many years, the Zanesville heat wave was broken at nine o'clock this morning when the first rain for more than ten days began to fall and brought cooling breezes and a delightful drop in temperature.

Residence thermometers registered as high as 88 at midnight and official thermometers reported 90 this morning before the rain came.

AVIATORS WAIT ESTABLISHMENT OF AIR BASE—PLANE SENT WADE

On Board U. S. Cruiser Richmond off Reykjavik, Iceland, Aug. 7.—(By Wireless) —Lieutenant Lowell Smith and Lieutenant Erik Nelson, remaining tow of the four United States army pilots who set out to fly around the world, settled down here today to an indefinite wait for the establishing of an air base at Angmagssalik, Greenland, their next objective.

The ice breaker Zest is being chartered to break a lane through the floating off Angmagssalik, as this is considered the only available landing spot on the east Greenland coast.

"Our hands are tied," Lieutenant Smith told International News Service. "There is nothing for us to do but wait until a base is established and there is a belt of open water where we can land. Also we must have supplies."

Smith had been hopeful that the delay might not be over five days,

ACCIDENTS SHOW INCREASE STATE REPORT INDICATES

Columbus, Aug. 7.—J. H. Lamneck, chief of the division of workmen's compensation, department of public relations, says in his annual report that of 181,610 accidents in industrial concerns during the fiscal year ending July 1, 1923 were fatal.

This was an increase of 130 fatal accidents and an increase of 4,150 non-fatal accidents over the previous year.

The increase in the number of accidents, both fatal and non-fatal, is attributed to the fact that work improved over the previous year, and many more thousands of men were constantly employed in 1924 than in 1923. It is also pointed out by Mr. Lamneck that there were 4,500 more risks under the law at the end of the last fiscal year than there were in 1923. The present number of risks contributing to the state insurance fund is 79,823. In addition to this, 401 risks have been given permission to carry their own insurance.

Total premiums collected during the year amounted to $10,724,780.94 and interest on the reserve fund totaled $2,577,126.08. Expenditures for compensation, medical expenses, etc., amounted to $10,669,831.91. The balance in the fund was $46,010,738.36, of which over $44,000,000 has been awarded in compensation and is being paid in bi-weekly installments.

TRAP IS PREPARED FOR MINE BANDITS

Denver, Aug. 1.—Officials have prepared a death trap at the mouth of the Palsade mine, near Grand Junction, Colo., for the three bandits who since Saturday have resisted efforts of a sheriff's posse to dislodge them from their underground hiding place. Tunnels leading to interior of the mine have been wired with a battery of electric lights and members of the posse stationed nearby with orders to shoot on sight if the bandits appear. Sheriff Jeff Watson, who heads the posse, plans to wait until the bandits venture out towards the entrance, then turn on the lights suddenly and shoot the men down. Sulphur gas fumes, which have been poured into the mine, are expected to force the bandits out. Sheriff Watson declared now the men will never be taken out alive. Repeated warnings to them to "come out or be blown out," were ignored.

DEMENTED KILLER HITS PASSENGERS ON TRAIN; TWO DEAD

St. Paul, Aug. 7.—Going insane on a Great Northern train, N. J. Lindberg, 40, grabbed a heavy wrench from a heater kit and went through the coach striking passengers on the head with it. Lindberg leaped from the train at Cass Lake. He was next heard from at the home of Charles Richards. The insane man struck Richards over the head with the wrench, dragged him into the yard and beat Richards' head to a pulp, leaving him dead. Lindberg then went to the home of Nick Schauer, Cass Lake, where he obtained firearms and ammunition.

Roy Jondahl was Lindberg's next victim. Jondahl and Severen Hole were looking for the madman at a place south of town. They stopped their car to speak to a heavily armed stranger, who proved to be Lindberg. Lindberg shot Jondahl in the stomach and groin. He returned the fire and struck Lindberg in the hip. Lindberg then turned his gun upon himself and committed suicide. Jondahl was brought to the hospital here, fatally wounded.

Passengers on the train injured by Lindberg's wrench included T. J. Evans, train conductor. Lindberg's home was in Portland, Ore.

KILLS WIFE AND SONS THEN SUICIDES

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 7.—After slaying his wife and his two young sons as they slept in their beds early today, Henry Hopkins Lyon, electrical engineer, retired to his own bedroom, apparently reloaded the revolver with which he had wiped out his immediate family, stretched himself out upon his bed and put a bullet in his right cheek. He was taken to Columbus hospital where he died. No reason has been advanced for the tragedy, the family having been prosperous and happy.

REPUBLICANS OF LUCAS ANTI-KLAN

Toledo, Aug. 7.—The Lucas county Republican organization has come out against the Ku Klux Klan. The controlling committee endorsed Captain Roy W. Scofield for sheriff against Charles G. Emmert, who has the Klan endorsement, it was announced. A statement of the Republican organization says that with the vote scattered among 16 candidates for sheriff and the Klan backing Emmert, he might be nominated, "marking the beginning of race and religious strife which must bring trouble if not disaster to the Republican party." Walter F. Brown, Republican leader, said: "I have no objection to anyone joining the Klan. That is a personal matter. But I do object to any secret order imposing its principles or its candidates on the Republican party. The Republican party, if it stands for anything, must stand for equal rights of all American citizens."

XENIANS SUFFERED ON HOTTEST DAY

The long heat wave, three days in length, which has gripped Xenia since early Monday morning was at last broken Wednesday night when thunder showers promised by weather forecasters for several days and long overdue, broke about 8:30 o'clock.

The high mark in temperature was broken when thermometers over the city registered 94 degrees at 4 o'clock. This is a new high mark for the summer, the best previous mark being June 6 when the temperature reached 93 degrees.

SHIPMENTS ON RAILROADS IN SERIOUS SLUMP

Federal Reserve Board Report Shows Business Recession

Washington, Aug. 7.—The federal reserve board's monthly review of business conditions shows continued recession in industry and commerce.

According to the review, steel, textile, automobile and non-ferrous metal industries of the United States entered July with decreased employment, while railroad shipments, running 15 per cent below the volume of a year ago, and sales in distributing channels of the retail and wholesale trades alike dropped off. A redeeming condition in the line of agricultural production was noted chiefly in the cereal growing regions, although cotton was said to be promising a fair sized crop at prices somewhat above paring levels. Drought in the western range country and bad weather in scattered tobacco growing sections were adverse factors reported in the agricultural field. Business activity abroad has sharpened, the review said, "under the encouragement of better national, fiscal and currency policies and lessened tensility in international relations. The review adds:

"Economic conditions in Europe during the first half of 1924 have been characterized by an increase in industrial activity, a growth in domestic and foreign trade, and in many countries by smaller fluctuations in prices and exchange rates. Countries whose currencies depreciated violently in 1923 and 1924 have since adopted financial reforms, resulting during the year in greater stability. Beginning with the latter part of 1923 and continuing until May of this year, unemployment through a large part of Europe has diminished, production in basic industries has increased and in contrast to preceding years the time and character of change in the business situation in the different countries has shown a considerable degree of uniformity."

MYSTERY CLOUDS DEATH OF GIRL

Dayton, Aug. 7.—The death of Mildred Kilmer, 27, Rochester, N. Y., remained unsolved Thursday as she was borne away on a train bound from Dayton to her home in Rochester, N. Y. A resident of Dayton for only two weeks, the cause of her death Tuesday night has not been ascertained by official investigation.

Harry Kilmer, 38, 136 Illinois Avenue, will be required to answer several questions regarding the girl's death as soon as he recovers from the serious condition into which he lapsed yesterday morning when taken to the Dayton State Hospital, according to Coroner E. E. Kimmel.

Kilmer told an interne at the Miami Valley Hospital that it was necessary that the girl should be quieted with a dose of sixty grains of veronal.

Kimmel reported last night that Kilmer and the girl had been in a room at the Antler Hotel Monday evening.

UNITED STATES WILL NOT DISCUSS WAR DEBTS NOW

This Government Will Participate In Proposed Conference Of Ministers Of Finance In Paris.

London, Aug. 7.—The allied council of finance in Paris after the conclusion of the reparations commission this afternoon reached an agreement with Germany upon the report of committee number one dealing with procedure to be taken in event Germany is charged with defaulting her obligations under the Dawes plan. No changes were made in the report of the committee as published.

London, Aug. 7.—Ambassador Frank B. Kellogg's letter, announcing that the United States will participate in the proposed conference of ministers of finance in Paris after the conclusion of the reparations commission, does not mean that the United States is willing to discuss interrelated debts, it was explained at the American embassy this afternoon.

The United States refuses to discuss war debts at this time, maintaining they are definite financial obligations which do not admit of discussion except as to the manner in which they shall be paid.

It is understood here that the conference will be confined only to discussion of the deliberation of reparations. The United States is particularly interested in this due to monies owing on account of the upkeep of the United States of occupation on the Rhine.

Every effort is being made to speed up the work of the allied reparations conference. A committee of experts examining the German reply, representatives of England, France, Belgium and Germany are conferring upon the details which are regarded as being outside the scope of the formal conference.

Chief of these questions is avowed by the Ruhr.

One feature of the German communication which is engaging much attention from the experts committee is the request for greater German representation upon the arbitral tribunal. The delegates are hopeful and anticipate any serious trouble reaching an agreement. It is probable that a "trade" can be made of question of Ruhr evacuation, France and Belgium promising to evacuate part of Germany for an inquiry Germany's military strength at promise that the German military will be "demilitarized."

Locher and Maloney made their statements as a result of a meeting in Chillicothe at which Crabbe addressed stock and certificate holders of the endowment company in company with R. V. Huggins, former president of the concern. Both Locher and Maloney were at the meeting with Joseph Ferguson, state examiner. The commerce director and receiver also appeared at the meeting to meet Crabbe's charges that there was graft in the "blue sky" department in connection with the conduct of L. W. Josephson, former vice president of the endowment company, who is charged with the embezzlement of $92,000 of the firm's funds.

Locher, in a statement, accused the attorney general of "scalawagging and vote getting" and claims that he answered all of Crabbe's arguments at the Chillicothe meeting. "Crabbe exhibited nine checks which he claimed were made out to a former employee of the state securities department. The checks were made to the employee by Josephson before he had any connection with the endowment company or the employee with the securities department," said Locher.

Crabbe displayed the checks again today. He said that one for $300 had been given by Josephson three days before the employee in question was appointed and one for $500 shortly after the appointment. He claimed to have evidence which will show that $200 of the loan, later transferred to the endowment company, was marked paid and charged to sales promotion account by Josephson in exchange for favors from the blue sky division.

"The attorney general is not cooperating with the prosecution of this case," Maloney, receiver for the endowment company, declared. "Ask of Ella J. Reeder, for whom he obtained $5,061 of the company's money from Josephson in September, 1923. Mrs. Reeder had invested the money in certificates, which were not supposed to be paid out for five years. Yet, he came to Josephson, evidently knowing the state of the company, and got the money back. Why did he not prosecute then?"

STORM OVER ANGLO- RUSSIAN AGREEMENT BREAKS OUT AGAIN

London, Aug. 7.—The storm over the Anglo-Russian agreement, bodying two treaties—one general and one commercial—broke out again in common today when Premier David Lloyd George and Premier Ramsey MacDonald said that the treaty should not be signed until it could be debated.

Premier Ramsey MacDonald said he wanted to sign the pact this afternoon, pointing out it would not be operative until after common bates it in the September session.

Premier MacDonald explained that, when the treaty is debated in common, the members may agree or reject it.

Marquis Cuzon, attacking the agreement said it would give something for nothing.

Edmond Morel, laborite, replied the Tories with a vigorous defense of the agreement, saying:

"The laborites have done something. The Tories have done nothing. As to David Lloyd George's tack, I will not say it was hypocritical but it was disingenuous."

The treaty has been published. Soviet Russia recognizes the Russian war debts and agrees to the payment of claims commissions. After an agreement has been reached to satisfy holders of Russian bonds the Soviet will obtain credits of England.

Newspaper severely criticized government, claiming it was not finite enough as it does not mention specific sums.

URGES MRS. UPTON'S DEFEAT.

Youngstown, O., Aug. 7.—A circular addressed to "Fellow Klansman" and signed "Web Lentz" urges that every Klansman and Klanswoman should "in every way possible contribute to the defeat of Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton," who resigned as Republican national vice chairman to seek the Republican nomination for congress in the Nineteenth district of Ohio. Lentz is cyclops of the Mahoning county Ku Klux Klan.

DON'T WRITE NAMES OF CANDIDATES ON OPPOSITE BALLOTS

"May I write in the name of a Democrat on a Republican primary ballot or the name of a Republican on a Democratic ticket?"

This is the question most frequently being asked of Earl Short, clerk of the board of elections. The answer is an emphatic "no," if the voter wishes his or her vote to have any effect.

Many voters believe if they vote for a Democrat on a Republican ticket the vote will be added to the votes he receives on his own ticket thus raising his total, according to Mr. Short. This is not the case. If the candidate receives enough votes on the ticket of opposite politics to nominate him, he would receive the political persuasion but the votes would not be added to the votes received on his own ticket in order to guarantee nomination by his own party.

Thus the candidate has to be voted for on his own ticket, and voters can accomplish nothing by writing the name of a Democratic candidate on a Republican ticket or a Republican candidate on a Democratic ticket.

WHY YOU NEED ORGANIC IRON

Practical Advice on How to Develop Great Energy and Endurance

The food you eat contains carbon. When your food is digested it is absorbed from the intestines into the blood. When the carbon in your food comes in contact with the oxygen carried by the iron in your blood, the carbon and oxygen unite and by so doing they give off tremendous energy thereby giving you great force, strength and endurance. Without iron your blood carries no oxygen and without oxygen there is nothing to unite with the carbon in your food, so that what you eat does you no good—you do not get any strength from it—is like putting coal into a stove without a fire. You cannot get any heat unless the coal unites with the fl.

The strongest weapon with which to prevent and overcome colds, pneumonia, kidney trouble, rheumatism, nervous prostration, in fact almost any disease or disease germs is plenty of good rich, pure blood. Strength, energy and endurance and the greatest energy crisis in the body is organic iron, not metallic iron which people usually take, but organic iron like the iron in spinach, lettuce and apples and like the iron contained in what is known as organic Nuxated Iron, which may be had from almost any druggist.

If you have been taking metallic iron without benefit there is no proof that organic Nuxated Iron will not help you. Nuxated Iron in fact almost increases the strength, energy and endurance of weak, nervous run down folks in two weeks time. It has been used and highly recommended by former United States Senators, members of Congress, Judges of U. S. Court, physicians and prominent men so that new millions of people are using it. Satisfactory results are guaranteed or the manufacturers will refund your money. Sold by all druggists in tablet form only.

Facts About Child-birth

It has been proven conclusively that much of the suffering, pain and dread experienced during expectancy, as well as at child-birth is entirely unnecessary. An eminent physician, Dr. J. H. Holmes, expert in this science, first produced the great remedy "Mother's Friend," which aids the muscles and tissues to expand more easily, during the constant readjustment, month after month, right up to the climax of child-birth.

"Mother's Friend" is applied externally. Three generations of expectant mothers have used it. "Pains disappeared in two days after using 'Mother's Friend,'" writes a user. "I owe my life to 'Mother's Friend,'" declared another. Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did, start today and experience the wonderful comfort it will give you.

FRANK A. JACKSON POINTS TO RECORD IN OFFICE IN ASKING FOR HIS SECOND TERM

Frank Andrew Jackson, candidate for re-election as treasurer of Greene County,

Reared at Cedarville, Mr. Jackson was graduated from the high school there and then entered his father's coal and lumber office in that place. When twenty-one years of age, he was elected clerk of his home township, a position he filled by consecutive re-elections for thirteen years. He also for a time operated the Opera House at Cedarville and was otherwise active in the affairs of his home town.

Mr. Jackson is one of the real "Old Hickory" Jacksons, his great-grandfather having been a brother of Andrew Jackson, the hero of the battle of New Orleans and seventh President of the United States.

He also is a member of one of Greene County's oldest families, his father, the Hon. Andrew Jackson, former member of the legislature from this district, being a son of General Robert Jackson, who settled on Clark

Run, three miles west of Cedarville in 1805 and who in 1811 was commissioned general commanding the militia forces of this district.

Andrew Jackson, father of Frank Andrew Jackson, was elected to represent this district in the sixty-eighth General Assembly and was re-elected for the succeeding term. He was later chosen sergeant-at-arms of the House and was re-elected to that office six succeeding years. At the last session, that of the seventy-sixth, he received the vote also of the Democrats, a compliment said to be unparalleled in the annals of the legislature.

For two terms during his father's service in the state legislature Frank A. Jackson served as a legislative clerk and for three years thereafter was engaged as an agent of the Ohio Fuel Supply Company, buying rights-of-way between Columbus and Cincinnati.

During the incumbency of Sheriff W. B. McCallister, Mr. Jackson was appointed deputy sheriff of Greene County and in the campaign of 1914 received the Republican nomination for the office of sheriff. He was elected that fall and so satisfactory were his services that he was re-nominated and elected in 1916.

He succeeded Mrs. Carrie Faulkner who was appointed county treasurer to fill the unexpired term of the late John McVay, at the last election.

Mr. Jackson and Miss Edna Townsley, of Cedarville, were married December 21, 1914. Both the Jackson and Townsley families are of pioneer stock of the county and have been members of the United Presbyterian denomination since the "union" in 1858, having previously been of the old Associate communion.

He had one successful term in office and has made hosts of friends throughout the county by his genial accommodating manner and efficient conduct of the affairs of the office. His many friends believe he is rightfully entitled to the usual courtesy of a second term.

CORRECTION

The number of bonus claims handed by the Greene County Chapter of the American Red Cross during July was 174 instead of 1721, as announced.

ELKS TO MEET

Members of the Xenia Lodge of Elks, and their families and friends will not participate in the twenty-sixth annual convention of Ohio Elks at Cedar Point, Lake Erie, on August 25 to 30, it was said by local officials Thursday.

Large Red Pimples On Face And Body Cuticura Healed

"My face and almost my entire body broke out with pimples. They were large and red and after festering, scaled over. They itched and burned and my clothing aggravated the breaking out on my body. It was almost impossible to sleep at night due to the intense irritation. I tried several remedies but to no avail. A friend advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I purchased some. After a week's treatment my skin showed signs of clearing, and the itching and burning were relieved. I continued the treatment and in about a month I was healed, after using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment." (Signed) Miss Alice C. Kalori, 18406 Neff Rd., Cleveland, Ohio.

For every purpose of the toilet and bath, Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum are excellent.

BACK TO EUROPE ON OUR OWN TERMS

Observers of the Interallied Conference saw far-reaching historical significance in the agreements signed on Saturday morning in London. There is no doubt of their significance to Europe, and they are equally significant to Americans. They mean that Europe's five-year effort to bring America back to the Old World has succeeded and that Americans, however "unofficially," have gone back on their own terms that give them a staggering amount of "unofficial" power.

What has happened is the virtual abdication of the Old World in favor of the New. Whether in the long run this makes for good or for evil for herself, America has arbitrated the Allied quarrel. In addition, she has agreed, unofficially, to referee, umpire and further arbitrate the weary business of carrying out the settlement she unofficially proposed.

For reasons familiar to the world for five years, the Allies left to themselves were unable to deal jointly with the Germans. Britain's interests clashed with those of France; French interests clashed with the British. In the resulting deadlock, nothing was settled. There had to be an arbitrator.

That has been the American role. This was the real business of the Dawes committee. Its report was not pro-English, pro-French or pro-German; it was pro-settlement. It sought compromise and arbitration just as the "unofficial" American representatives at London have arbitrated and compromised allied differences.

Ten years, almost to the hour, from the day the Germans declared war against France the Allies agreed on a 'Made-in-America' settlement program. Today, ten years after the British declaration of war against Germany, German delegates come to London to receive that program. America did not win the war, but without our money and man-power it might have been lost.

HUGHES JUST IN TIME TO HELP

The presence of Secretary Hughes in Berlin at the psychological moment of the departure of the German delegates for the reparations conference at London, was regarded as of the highest importance to an accord.

It became much more than a mere courtesy call before his return to the United States this week. The influence of the American statesmen on German official opinion was held inevitable. Its effects were expected to be revealed in the German attitude at London, where the allied program for operation of the Dawes plan will be discussed.

Primarily because of the presence of Mr. Hughes in conference with German officialdom, Washington could not agree with that element of French opinion which was pessimistic about Germany's acceptance of the allied program. It could not accept the view of the always skeptical Poincaré that when Prime Minister MacDonald declared: "We are all agreed Satan alone can separate us," at that moment "Satan was packing his grips in Berlin."

Barring that vague possibility of a German refusal to sign the protocol, Secretary Hughes, as the diplomatic agent of the American Government, stood on the very threshold of the most notable achievement in the field of foreign relations since the fourteen Points of President Wilson were accepted as a basis for an armistice and the "cease-firing" order ran down the lines from the Alps to the Channel.

Completion of the political performance essential to the successful operation of the recommendations of the Dawes committee was viewed here as of inestimable psychological importance to the economic future of the United States, no less than that of Europe.

"POWER" IS PROGRESS

For the first time the English people are realizing that other nations are beating them in the race for cheaper power. The 400 papers that were delivered at the World Power Conference recently at Wembley have now been printed and studied by British engineers and manufacturers. They prove beyond all doubt that England has been left behind by three or four other countries in the matter of electrical development.

The facts and figures presented at this conference took the wind out of the British engineers. Several of the papers were over their heads. They were stunned at the description of vast superpower companies which gather up power and distribute it as a bank gathers and distributes money.

The amazing story of electrical development in Switzerland was told for the first time at this conference. It surprised Americans and English alike. It appears that Switzerland is now further advanced electrically than any other country in the world.

THE GOOD WORLD

The Lord must have liked us, I say
when I see
The bloom of the rose and the green
of the tree,
The flash of the wing of a bird flitting by,
The gold of the grain and the blue of
the sky,
The clover below and the tall pines
above,
Oh, there's something about us
the good Lord must love.

The Lord must have liked us, I say
when I stand
Where the waves like an army come
into the land,
With the gulls riding high on the
crest of the breeze
And the ducks flying north in their
echelon V's,
The sun slipping down into liquid
gold—
Oh, it's then the great love of the
Lord I behold.

The Lord must have liked us, I say
at the dawn
When the diamonds of dew gleam and glow on the lawn,
And the birds from their throats pour
the red wine of song
As if life held no burden of sorrow
or wrong;
The Lord must have loved us, I
whisper just then
To give such a world to the children
of men.

The Lord must have liked us, I say

as I pass
The nest of a meadow lark deep in the grass,
Or hear in the distance the quail calling clear
And know that his mate and his babies are near.
Oh, I say to myself as His wonders
I see
The Lord loves us all or this never would be.

One of the sweetest things that one can make for a baby, is a knitted shoulder comfort, or bed jacket, which consists of one long strip which is doubled at either end to form short sleeves for the arms to go through.

Materials are: two balls of three-fold fingering yarn or ripple wool (costing about 50 cents a ball), one pair of three and a half bone needles and also one pair of five and a half bone needles (these cost around 25 cents a pair, generally, although prices differ in different localities.)

Terms: K means knit. P means purl. N means narrow (that is, knit two stitches together as one stitch).

St. means stitch. S. C. means single crochet. D. C. means double crochet (that is, thread over the needle, draw up a new loop, draw through two and through two).

Using the three and one-half size

needle, begin by casting on 40 stitches. K two, P two for two inches, making the cuff. Widen one in every other st. by knitting both the front and the back of the st. Knit these 60 stitches for six rows, then change to the five and one-half size needles and knit till the entire work is 17 inches long (or longer, if desired, for a large infant). Now change back to the smaller needles and knit six rows. On the next row narrow at every other st. so with two inches of K two, P two. Bind that there will be 40 in all, and finish off loosely. Sew up the cuffs and one and one-half inches beyond (to make a sleeve.)

Finish one edge with scallops to within four inches of the cuffs, the scallop consisting of one single crochet in the second space and four double crochet in the second space beyond; repeat to the end. Form the collar by turning the scalloped edge back two inches at the middle. Put a fancy bow of ribbon at the ends of the collar, and run the ribbon through at the neck for ties in front.

These pretty and useful little shoulder comforts may also be made with dainty quality of flannel or with chalis, in the same manner. The crochet directions given above are for a garment which will fit a baby under one year old.

HUSBAND SAID WHY NOT TRY IT

Wife Said She Would. Result, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well and Strong

East Hardwick, Vt.—"Last winter I was not able to do any work at all. I had backache, headache, side ache, and was sick all the time for six months. We read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers, and my husband said to me, 'Why don't you try it?' So I said I would, and he went and got me a dozen bottles. It has done me more good than I can ever tell, and my friends say, 'What have you done to yourself? You look so well. I tell them it is the Vegetable Compound that makes me so well and strong. There is no use to suffer with backache and pains. I will tell every one what it has done for me.' —Mrs. FRED. PRIMO, Route No. 2, East Hardwick, Vermont.

Housewives make a great mistake in allowing themselves to become so ill that it is well-nigh impossible for them to attend to their household duties.

In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, 98 out of every 100 report they were benefited by its use. For sale by druggists everywhere.

THE FINGERS OF FAITH

The fingers of the hand are very expressive. I like to study hands. Fingers can do so much. They are the organs of so much service.

Wherever beauty is there you may see the finished touch of fingers.

I thought of this the other day when the papers extolled the life of Mrs. "Jack" Gardner who recently died in Boston and gave her wonderful collection of art and handicraft to the city. Her gift meant the living of beauty for centuries through what fingers had done.

In this connection I have been thinking of the fingers of Faith—fingers that reach out into the unknown that they may touch realities and thus enliven and make real the measure of our work and desires.

The fingers of Faith reach! They know that there is something tangible in this world and are not afraid to risk and grope.

As the fingers of a mother reach about and warm the tiny baby that has come out of her heart, so do the fingers of Faith reach and warm the deepest longings of our souls.

On my library table is a beautiful bronze. It's the figure of a little girl called "Pippa Passes." Its slender arms are reaching upward. The fingers are spread and point to something higher. They typify the fingers of Faith.

Faith is something very deep within that is always looking higher—higher and higher.

Without this urge within us we should fall by the way. We should falter to fall. We should wonder without being willing to go on. But the fingers tell us to look higher, to take heart, to believe. God is always at the end of each finger of Faith. And God means love, happiness and the thing most worth while in this world.

BOWERSVILLE TO PLAY TWICE

The doubleheader will start at 1:30 standard time, with the Zimmermann club performing the role of visitors in the first game followed by the Fayette County Athletics in the second fracas.

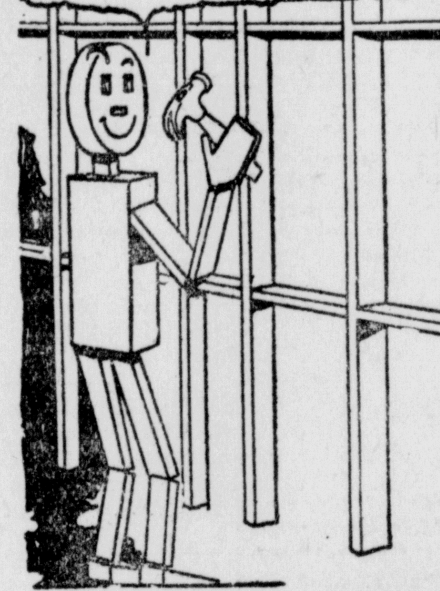

Hendricks will perform on the mound for the Athletics. He is the pitcher who held Bowersville to five hits and two runs in ten innings at Jeffersonville, recently.

Modish Mitzi—Aidelaide Sends Mitzi Style News From Abroad By Jay V. Jay

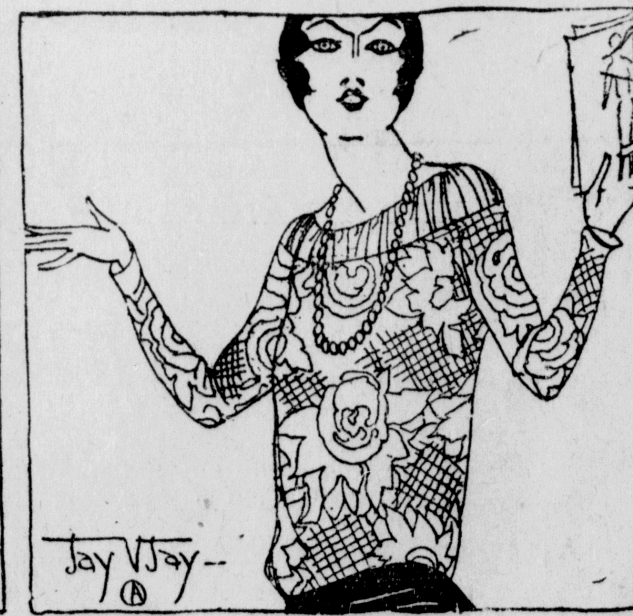

Adelaide, you will remember, is spending her honeymoon abroad. Her letters to Mitzi are mostly illustrations. This one, for instance, she sent to Mitzi after seeing the races. She writes that long sleeves are the thing, long and tight. And tunics are used. Banded with fur.

"—and Mitzi (she writes,) I saw the most stunning gown at Lang-champ, tight lace sleeves and a collar of the same lace. The girdle was of lace and the same material of the dress combined. It is so smart and you can't get half the idea from the picture here."

"—my dear (writes Aidelaide), you don't know how much the unbelted tunic is being worn. One of the smartest gowns that ever stepped inside the Casino at Deauville was like the picture I have drawn. It is about as straight as anybody could make it. And notice that the sleeves are tight and long."

Mitzi has the latest thing, not even Paris can baffle her. She is overjoyed to think that without being at the center of the world's fashion creators, she has been able to forecast styles so closely that she is wearing at home what is being worn abroad.

SAY MESSENGER WILL BE NOMNATED FOR STATE SENATE

Optimism reigned in the camp of Dr. A. C. Messenger, candidate for the Republican nomination for state senator, Thursday, as to the success of the campaign, the local physician is making for the office.

"Dr. Messenger will receive the nomination," his friends confidently predicted. They said that reports filtering in from various sections of the fifth-sixth senatorial district, comprising the counties of Greene, Ross, Fayette, Highland and Clinton, showed Dr. Messenger is gaining ground, one enthusiastic supporter declaring: "the unprejudiced judgment of those, who have thoroughly canvassed the situation is that Dr. Messenger will be nominated, next Thursday by an overwhelming vote."

DR. A. C. MESSENGER.

Friends of the doctor point to his record as proof of his fitness for the office, he is seeking. They say that this shows his interest in community welfare and indicates the type of administration of the office of state senator, he will give if elected.

Among other things they are calling attention to are: that he was a member of the Xenia City School Board for twelve years; that he was appointed health officer of Xenia and served eight years; that he was the first president of the Greene County Automobile Club; that he was for twelve years resident physician of the O. S. and S. O. Home; that he has been president of the Greene County Ma-onic and Shrine Club, that he has been a member for more than thirty years of the official board of the First Presbyterian Church; that he was a member of the draft board during the war, and later was commissioned captain in the Army Medical Corps; that he is a member of several fraternal organizations, and that he has been prominent in medical circles.

Thursday afternoon, Riverdale will play Xenia and Centerville, while in the closing match of the tournament, Xenia and Centerville will meet in a match that will determine the probable winner.

The lineup:

EIGHTY FIFTH ANNUAL FAIR DRAWS CROWDS OF PLEASURE SEEKERS IN SPITE OF WEATHER

Greene County Fair, over three-quarters of a century old, celebrated its eighty-fifth anniversary in a fashion similar to a gay centennial on his birthday.

This annual renewal of the Greene County Agricultural Society dates back to the palmy days of 1839. Hundreds of people attended the events Wednesday regardless of the sun's sweltering rays that played continually over the grounds until late in the afternoon.

All of the time-worn features that go with a fair were present, the merry-go-round, ferris wheel, soft drink dispensers, chickens, hogs, cattle and freaks of the side shows. There are also many new features this year.

Granges in Greene County exhibited their wares. There were five Granges represented: Charity Grange, Beaver Creek Township, Beaver Grange, Caesar Creek, Xenia and Jamestown Granges. Premiums are awarded by the County Agricultural Society for the best Grange Agricultural and horticultural displays.

A health exhibit comprising moving pictures demonstrating health conditions, with a series of health talks between pictures, is a feature of the Fair. The local health department is giving the display in co-operation with the Ohio State Department of Health from where the films were obtained. The Red Cross booth, is giving demonstrations on child care Thursday and Friday.

Light attendance Wednesday, left the "great and glorious" midway somewhat deserted, as most of the patrons were race fans and were in the stands and lined along the fences of the track.

Bally-hoo men, with leather lungs and stentorian voices, earned their money Wednesday, coaxing the nickels from the natives. The operators of the merry-go-round and ferris wheel concessions did well though and should clean up Thursday.

One of the mechanical amusement features is the "whip," which was popular in Xenia in a street carnival several years ago. The amusement device offers a new thrill for jaded pleasure seekers and attracts as all new features do.

Two features of unusual educational interest are pictures of the Lorain tornado disaster and of the Woodrow Wilson memorial. For five cents the patron is permitted to look through a series of glasses, showing scenes of the tornado stricken city or pictures of the memorial.

Xenia merchants are taking advantage of the merchandising displays at the Fair, with everything from hardware to automobiles. Small concessions men sell whips and ticklers to the Fair crowds or fair maidens, with which to annoy passing swains. The great annual Greene County Fair is living up to expectations.

DAYTON CITY GOLF TOURNEY IS UNDER WAY

Dayton, August 7—Several last minute scratches marred the city tournament begun Thursday morning over the Community Country Club golf course.

Len Jordan, of the Hills and Dales club, who was to have played Vincent Hilton, present city champion, was forced to leave the city and will not be able to return in time to take part in the first day's play. C. T. Lawson, another entry, received a hurry call to leave for New York.

FORMER COMPANY F MEMBERS REUNITE AT WASHINGTON C. H.

Greene County members of the war-time unit, Company F, 330th Infantry, Eighty-Third Division, attended the second annual company reunion, held at Washington C. H., Wednesday.

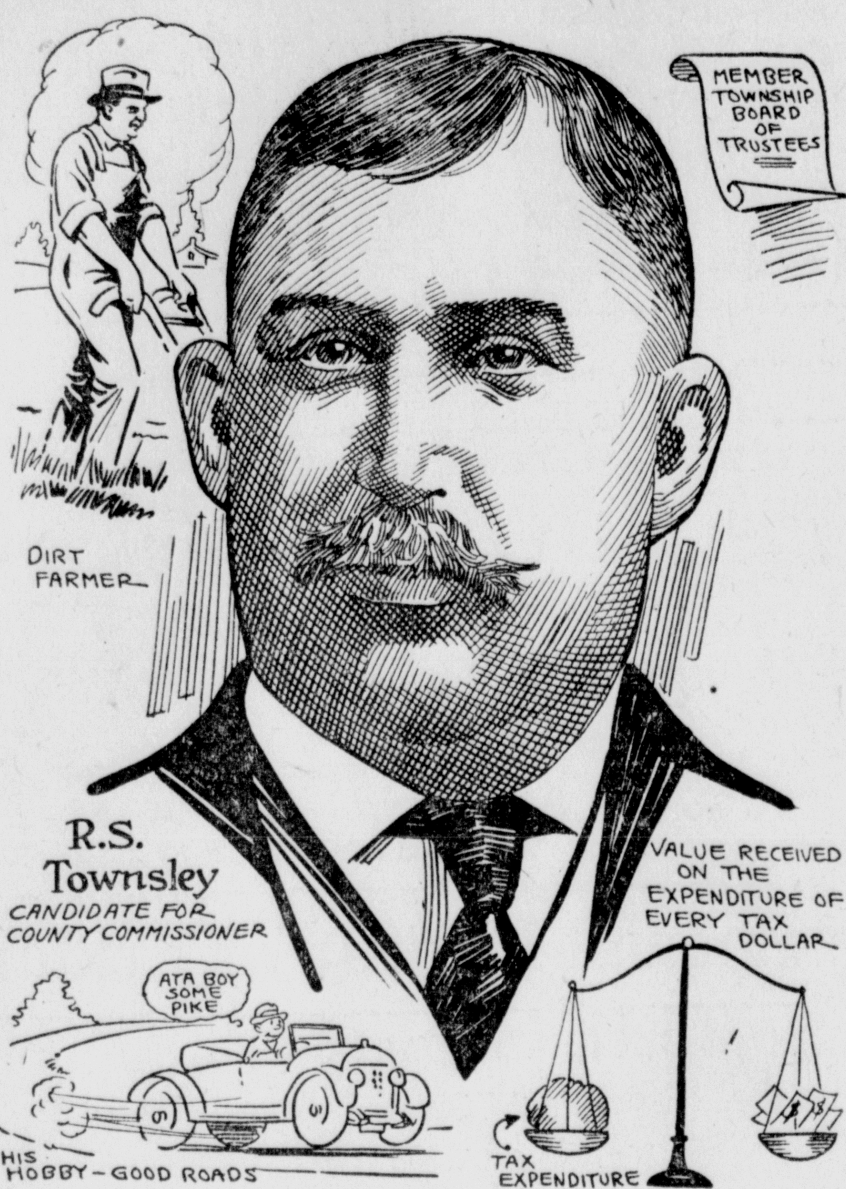

Reunion headquarters were at Memorial Hall, where members of the Washington W. R. C. served both dinner and supper to the ex-soldiers. The privileges of the Washington Y. M. C. A., were open to the delegates and in the afternoon there was a swimming party in Paint Creek, near Washington.

Several of the local members of the outfit drove to Chillicothe in the afternoon to see Camp Sherman, where they spent the hard winter of 1917-1918 in training. They renewed acquaintances during the day with a general, informal get-together.

A business session was held at night and was followed by the singing of war songs. Officers elected at the reunion here last year were continued in office without another election. Dr. W. P. Edmunds, Washington C. H., former captain of the company and later promoted to Major, is president of the reunion organization.

The Rev. Haver E. Crowell, Garfield, is chaplain. Dr. Edmunds appointed James Curlett, Xenia, chairman of a committee to arrange next year's reunion for this city.

R. S. TOWNSLEY, CEDARVILLE TOWNSHIP DIRT FARMER, SEEKING COUNTY COMMISSIONER JOB

R. S. Townsley, of Cedarville, born on a farm east of that place and a life-long resident of Cedarville township, comes before the electors of Greene County at the coming primary seeking the Republican nomination for County Commissioner.

Before locating in Cedarville, Mr. Townsley was engaged in the active practice of farming which he successfully conducted for many years, and which he yet supervises.

For years he was a member of the township board of trustees and it was during this public stewardship that his interest in public affairs was manifested. His record for service has merited the endorsement of the electors for several terms and also as a member of village council, however he declined to serve on the latter body.

His policy of value received on the expenditure of every tax dollar won for him the open endorsement of the tax payers in the eastern part of the county where his services were best known. As trustee he put forth every effort to keep the roads of the township in the best of condition, regardless of what ever sacrifice of time might be required of him personally.

Mr. Townsley has always been interested in public affairs and he comes before the voters with a clean record for faithful service. He has been a member of the Greene County Farm Bureau, and of the United Presbyterian Church of Cedarville.

Politically Mr. Townsley has always been a Republican. Judging from the quick response to his announcement as a candidate his many friends have assured him loyal support knowing that he is desirous of the honor he

XENIA DEFENDANTS IN DAMAGE ACTIONS WINNERS IN COURT

Judge Alfred McCray, of Dayton, in Common Pleas Court, Wednesday, upheld the verdicts of a jury which found for the defendant in two damage actions growing out of a triple auto collision on the Springfield-Urbana pike, about three miles north of Springfield, October 1, 1922.

The double-barrelled decision covered a $5,000 suit brought by Mrs. Jessie Miller, 311 Xenia Avenue, Dayton, against Elmer Owens, of this city, and a $300 suit brought by Mrs. Miller's husband, Carl P. Miller, against Owens. Mrs. Miller sued for personal injuries and Miller for damages to his machine.

The jury returned verdicts Sept. 27, 1923 in favor of Owens. Judge McCray's decision overrules the plaintiff's motion for a new trial of the cases.

FORMER GREENE COUNTIAN DIES

Charles M. Cottrell, 63, of Snyder Terrace, Springfield, prostrated at his home Tuesday afternoon, died in the Springfield City Hospital, Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Cottrell was born in Cedarville, O., and went to Springfield when about 17 years of age. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Goldie Cottrell, two sons, Don and James and two daughters, Margaret and Mrs. A. S. Baker of Springfield.

Burial will be made at Clifton Cemetery.

Hazel Kuestner, a brown mare by Walnut Hall, entered and driven by Ray Moore of North Randall, was the equine heroine of the Greene County Fair races, which began Wednesday as the principal feature of the annual Fair.

The pacer took the 2:10 pace, fastest time event of the week, in three straight heats, winning handily against the class of the meeting, including Walter M., the Chicago owned pacer with Zepel up and Mary Ann, owned by John Rogge of Dayton, with Joe Hagler of Xenia, handling the reins.

Little Azzoff, a trotting fool by Az-off, owned by W. S. Druley of Anderson, Ind., and driven by Crady, was the other feature performer of the afternoon's program, winning in the 2:20 trot in straight heats, the best time being 2:15 1-4. Miss Fortune, an entry by I. P. Russell and Sons of Stevenson, Ala., was the runner-up in the event.

Betty Hedge Wood, the favorite, entered by D. M. Carlton, of Keensburg, Iowa, with Grubbs up, won the 2:25 pace by taking the last two heats after Prince S., with the veteran Nation up, won the first heat handily. The best time was 2:12 1-4 made in the first heat by Prince S.

A slim opening day crowd witnessed the speed events, the crowd being less than normal all over the grounds. The fast heels of Little Azzoff in the trot and Hazel Kuestner in the pace, featured the speed events and Starting Judge Howard Titus got the speeders away in good shape. The only accident was when P. Hunter, driving Direct Pointer, had a spill on the first turn in the 2:10 pace, but he was unhurt.

Between heats the Waynesville Band furnished music and the White Brothers, a comedy tumbling and acrobatic team, and Shaw's performing and racing whippet dogs, entertained the crowd. The horses are called every day at 1:30 and the events start at 2 o'clock, central standard time, making it 2:30 and 3 o'clock according to Xenia's daylight saving time. The summary:

2:25 Pace, Pacer $350. Betty Hedge Wood, s.g. by P. H. (Grubbs) 2 1 1

MOTORISTS WARNED OF DANGER DURING MONTH OF AUGUST

Greater caution on the part of motorists during the month of August is urged by officials of the Greene County Automobile Club, which is endeavoring to curb the steady stream of accidents during the last two years. August, it is declared, is the danger month for fast and reckless driving. A larger number of motorists are out on the highways during August than any other month of the year, all trying to escape the sweltering heat, which usually prevails in that month, by auto rides.

At grade crossings particularly the fatalities mount up, warned the Auto Club. In grade crossing accidents, the motorists lost more races with the trains during the month of August than any other month, statistics show.

SPRINGFIELD PIKE NEARLY FINISHED

The finishing touches are being put on the Springfield pike, it was announced by county officials Wednesday morning.

The contractors, Lewis and Copeland, of Lima, have completed work on the road with the exception of a small stretch, one half mile in length near Yellow Springs.

The cement work will be completed in about a week, it is said, but the pike will not be declared open for nearly a month after its completion in order to give the cement time to thoroughly set.

LOVE - OR FAME?

By
VIOLET DARE

AUTHOR OF "THE HALF-TIME WIFE"

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED.

DOROTHY LANE goes to New York to visit a friend and try to break into the movies. She soon gets started, and through the friendship of

LAWRENCE FRENCH, a young publicity man, gets an engagement with JOHN SEWARD, "the great lover of the screen," who falls in love with her and asks her to marry him. However, she cares more for French, but is not sure that he cares for her. She has an unfortunate experience with

EIKHORN, one of the big producers, and decides to go back home and give up her career, when French gets her a part in a picture being made in the country by

CARL BANNING. French follows her to the country and proposes to her. Banning persuades them not to be married at once, and French goes back to New York. The star of the production,

CRYSTAL MAY, does all that she can to make things unpleasant for Dorothy. Crystal refuses to do a dangerous leap, and Banning gives that scene to Dorothy. Dorothy realizes that it will mean a great deal to her career if she does it, and goes through with it, though she is much frightened. Later she learns that Crystal has insisted on having that scene cut out.

"We'd have to shoot all your scenes over again, with a new girl, if you left us now. It would cause delay and expense and a lot of trouble. Stay till we're through, and I promise that your scenes will be finished as soon as possible, and you can get back to New York. And I won't forget you—maybe some day I can show my appreciation of what you've done. Now, how about it?"

I wanted to do the right thing, of course; people always do want to, I suppose, only sometimes it's so hard that it seems impossible.

"We haven't any contract, of course," Mr. Banning went on, "but

TODAY'S INSTALMENT. L—THE RIGHT THING.

"NOW, listen to me a minute," Mr. Banning answered, and the hand that he laid on my arm was so steady and cool that I had to listen in spite of myself. "If you do that you're going to queer this picture. And it concerns more people than you and Crystal—more people than you imagine. I know that Crystal has been a little beast about this thing, but if you're a thoroughbred and stick it out I know that you won't lose anything by it."

I'd have given anything to have my promise back.

When Larry sent you to me the understanding was that you'd finish the picture—you aren't going to go back on that, are you?"

That cleared everything up for me. Of course, I'd be going back on Larry's word as well as on my own—I wondered why I hadn't realized that before.

"I'll stay," I told Mr. Banning, holding out my hand to seal the bargain. "I give you my word on it."

"Good!" he exclaimed, and then turned away, as some one shouted to him from the road. But even after he had started away he came back to say: "I appreciate this, Dorothy—I'm ever so much obliged to you."

Then I took Larry's letter out of my pocket—and when I finished it I'd have given anything to have my promise back from Carl Banning!

ALIENISTS END TESTIMONY IN MURDER TRIAL

Boyhood Friends of Loeb
and Leopold Now
Take Stand.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—The alienists with their ponderous conclusions and their long winded names for things left the center of the stage in the Leopold-Loeb trial today and in their stead came friends and relatives of the two youthful slayers to tell Judge John R. Caverly how queer Babe and "Dicky" have been since childhood.

For an entire week the witness box in Judge Caverly's courtroom has been occupied by a succession of solemn visaged scientists. They have spread loads of words into the records of this most unusual trial.

Today came the unscientific friends and relatives of the pair.

They came to testify to the facts concerning the boyish delinquencies of Babe and Dicky, to give eye witness testimony to the little thoughts acts years ago that the alienists have pointed to twisted philosophies, distorted ideas of right and wrong, which resulted finally in the murder of 14 year old Bobby Franks.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Bernard Glueck, psychoanalyst of New York, an alienist for the defense, testified at the hearing of Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb before Justice Caverly that Loeb struck the blows that caused the death of young Robert Franks.

Up to this time each of the boys had blamed the other for the actual attack upon Robert with the taped chisel. Heretofore other doctors had said they "believed" Loeb had dealt the blows.

Dr. Glueck was stopped by Benjamin Bachrach, a defense attorney, with the question: "Did you talk with Loeb about who struck the blow?" "Yes, Loeb told me he struck the blows himself," the doctor replied.

Dr. Glueck went on to describe Loeb's lack of emotion in telling his own story of the crime. "He told all of the gruesome details of the Franks murder," the doctor said. "He told it all to me as a matter of fact incident, explaining how he and Leopold stopped off in their automobile for a light lunch while automobiling."

The doctor continued: "I was particularly interested in the fact that Loeb had no normal human feeling. I have examined more than 2,000 criminals, and I have never seen such a remarkable situation except in those cases where the criminal had a disordered mind. I have been watching in court for a number of days and I could not help but notice how he sat and listened to the arguments intended for the purpose of hanging him without showing the least emotion. It seemed almost as though he were sitting in a theater watching a college play or something of the sort."

Shows No Remorse.
Dr. Glueck went over the ground covered by Drs. Healy and White, corroborating their findings. Dr. Glueck added that the failure of Loeb to show remorse or sorrow was "incomprehensible" to him.

Leopold, the witness said, showed extreme mental activity and unusual intelligence. "I was particularly attracted," Dr. Glueck said, "by the fact as built up his own philosophy of life according to this philosophy actions are justified which give pleasure. Even murder itself is justified by the fact that the murderer as a pleasurable sensation, according to his philosophy."

By early in life Leopold set out to kill human emotions, sympathy, tenderness, Dr. Glueck said. At time during the conversations Leopold and the doctor had, Leopold expressed sympathy for his family. "Leopold immediately apologized for this exhibition of sympathy," the witness said.

Two slayers continue to show emotion concerning the punishment that awaits them. "Whatever Caverly gives us, I guess will be right," Loeb said today. "If Caverly says I must be hanged, I be hanged, that's all. I feel we have committed a crime and we have been caught. If the law feels should be punished, even to the death sentence, I guess it will have all right. It is done and that's there is to it."

A woman, giving her name as Mrs. L. L. Houston, Tex., was arrested and taken to the psychopathic hospital here for "attempted interference with a court of justice," when she forced her way into the chambers of Judge Caverly and attempted to force him to dispose of the Leopold-Loeb murder hearing. Judge Caverly ordered a bailiff to arrest the woman. She was taken to the psychopathic hospital for examination.

Missouri Primaries.
St. Louis, Aug. 7.—Returns from 6,888 precincts out of 9,897 in Missouri give Sam A. Baker of Jefferson City, Republican candidate for governor, a plurality of $8,327 over Victor J. Miller, his nearest opponent. The vote stood: Baker, 106,872; Miller, 98,545; Lloyd, 68,021. Returns from 10,033 precincts give Dr. Arthur W. Nelson of Buncombe a plurality of $9,000 in the Democratic contest. The results show: Nelson, 133,141; Jacobs, 64,144; Wright, 44,481; Moore, 41,005; Johnson, 3,524.

Caught Under Fall of Rock.
Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 7.—Two miners were killed and nine injured when they were caught under a heavy fall of rock and slate in mine No. 1 of the Springfield Coal company near here. The accident occurred shortly after the men went to work.

Minister's Son Kills Self.
Akron, O., Aug. 7.—Charles McMaster Brown, 30, son of Rev. A. A. Brown of Tiffin, O., jumped from the North Hill viaduct to his death 100 feet below, because he was unable to find work here. He was a grandson of Dr. James N. McMaster of Akron. His neck was broken and both legs fractured.

Denver, Aug. 1.—Officials have prepared a death trap at the mouth of the Palisade mine, near Grand Junction, Colo., for the three bandits who since Saturday have resisted efforts of a sheriff's posse to dislodge them from their underground hiding place. Tunnels leading to interior of the mine have been wired with a battery of electric lights and members of the posse stationed nearby with orders to shoot on sight if the bandits appear. Sheriff Jeff Watson, who heads the posse, plans to wait until the bandits venture out towards the entrance, then turn on the lights suddenly and shoot the men down. Sulphur gas fumes, which have been poured into the mine, are expected to force the bandits out. Sheriff Watson declared now the men will never be taken out alive. Repeated warnings to them to "come out or be blown out," were ignored.

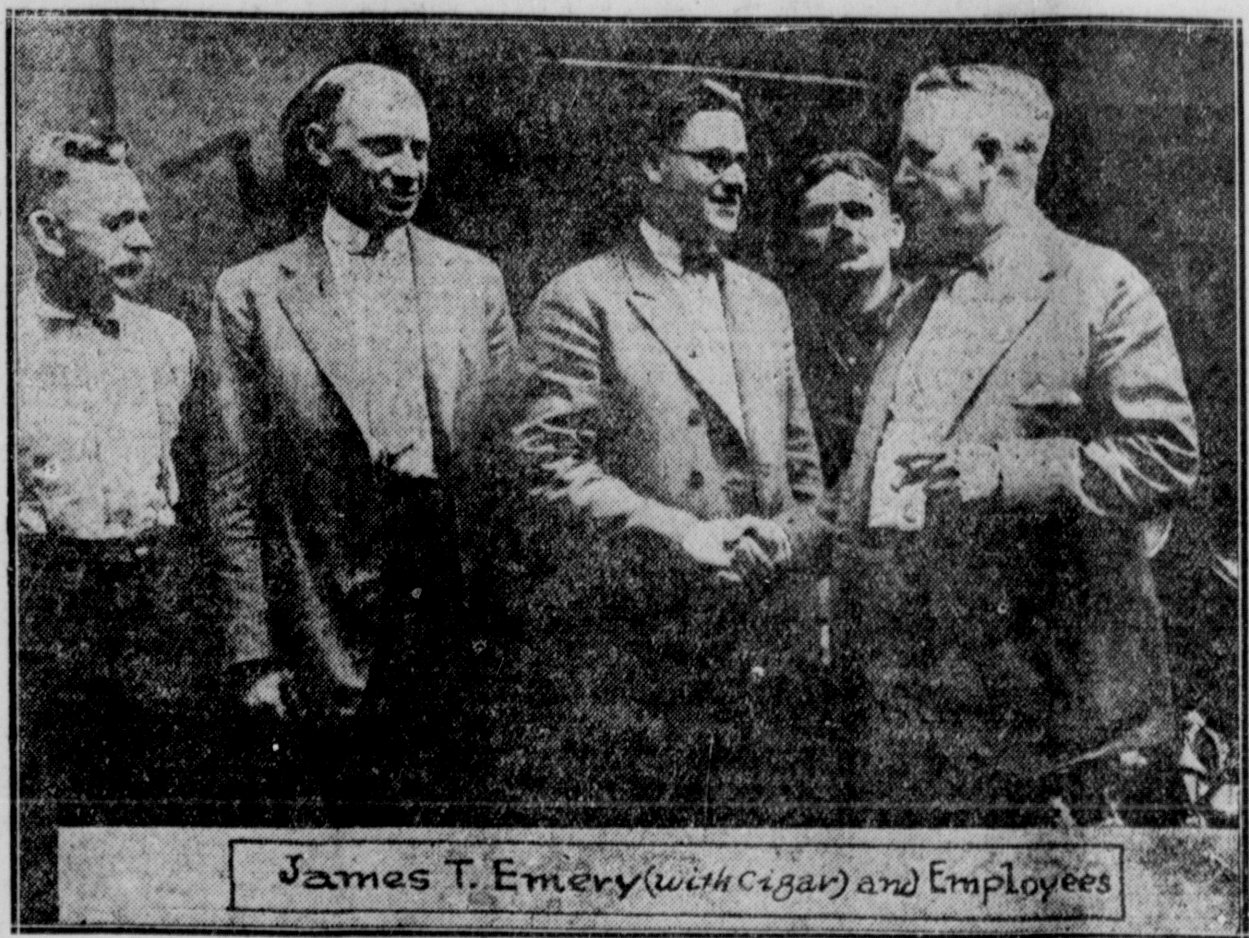

Shipments on Railroads in Serious Slump.
Washington, Aug. 7.—The federal reserve board's monthly review of business conditions shows continued recession in industry and commerce. According to the review, steel, textile, automobile and non-ferrous metal industries of the United States entered July with decreased employment, while railroad shipments, running 15 per cent below the volume of a year ago, and sales in distributing channels of the retail and wholesale trades alike dropped off. A redeeming condition in the line of agricultural production was noted chiefly in the cereal growing regions, although cotton was said to be promising a fair sized crop at prices somewhat above "ping" levels. Drought in the western range country and bad weather in scattered tobacco growing sections were adverse factors reported in the agricultural field. Business activity abroad has sharpened, the review said, under the encouragement of better national, fiscal and currency policies and lessened tension in international relations. The review adds:

GIVES HIS $100,000 FIRM TO HIS EMPLOYEES.

Six employees of the Union Club Motor Livery, of Chicago, decided to give their boss a birthday present, but he gave them the surprise of their lives. He just told them he was going to retire to Florida to live, and that the entire $100,000 business was theirs, lock, stock and barrel. The boss was James T. Emery, shown shaking hands with his son, Henry, who was one of the favored employees. The others shown in the picture, from left to right, are James Brady, Fred Florenz, John Forsberg, (in rear), and Mrs. Helen Campbell.

BREAK COMES IN EXTREME HEAT WAVE WASHINGTON D. C. AND PHOENIX IN MERCURY RACE

Many Prostrations Reported—Temperature 106
At Phoenix

Washington, Aug. 7.—Phoenix, Arizona and Washington, D. C., were running a neck and neck race today to see which could attain the highest temperature during the great heat wave which is now sweeping the country from the Atlantic to the Rocky mountains.

During the past 24 hours, Phoenix was the hottest place in the United States, the official temperature being 106 degrees. Washington was close second with an official temperature of 102 degrees and an unofficial temperature of 106 degrees, the same as Phoenix.

No relief from the heat was promised before another day and night, when the temperature and humidity in most parts of the country will return to summer normal, but even then it will not be much cooler, according to the weather bureau.

Twenty-five heat prostrations have been reported in Washington since Wednesday morning and, as soon as the sun came up over the Maryland hills this morning the hospitals again began to get busy with calls from various parts of the city where persons had succumbed to the heat.

Work in several government buildings which are located in wooden buildings has been suspended until the heat subsides, until the postoffice department, concluding that it was too hot for the mail carriers to make more than a minimum number of trips about the hot streets during the day has suspended part of the mail deliveries.

With Phoenix and Washington leading the heat sweepstakes, Baltimore is in third place with a temperature around 100 degrees and Parkersburg, W. Va., fourth with a temperature of 98.

The Pacific coast is escaping most of the heat wave, a temperature of only 62 degrees being reported from San Francisco. Chicago has also found relief by rains during the past 24 hours.

Zanesville, O., Aug. 7.—After sweltering through the hottest night for many years, the Zanesville heat wave was broken at nine o'clock this morning when the first rain for more than ten days began to fall and brought cooling breezes and a delightful drop in temperature.

Residence thermometers registered as high as 88 at midnight and official thermometers reported 90 this morning before the rain came.

Wheeling, W. Va., Aug. 7.—The heat record for summer was made yesterday when government temperature readings of 101 were reported, one degree higher than Tuesday.

William H. Ely, sixty, of Follansbee, succumbed to a sunstroke. Mill operations were curtailed by collapse of workers. Overcast skies today brought relief.

Minister's Son Kills Self.
Akron, O., Aug. 7.—Charles McMaster Brown, 30, son of Rev. A. A. Brown of Tiffin, O., jumped from the North Hill viaduct to his death 100 feet below, because he was unable to find work here. He was a grandson of Dr. James N. McMaster of Akron. His neck was broken and both legs fractured.

Caught Under Fall of Rock.
Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 7.—Two miners were killed and nine injured when they were caught under a heavy fall of rock and slate in mine No. 1 of the Springfield Coal company near here. The accident occurred shortly after the men went to work.

AVIATORS WAIT ESTABLISHMENT OF AIR BASE—PLANE SENT WADE

On Board U. S. Cruiser Richmond off Reykjavik, Iceland, Aug. 7.—(By Wireless) —Lieutenant Lowell Smith and Lieutenant Erik Nelson, remaining tow of the four United States army pilots who set out to fly around the world, settled down here today to an indefinite wait for the establishing of an air base at Angmagssalik, Greenland, their next objective.

The ice breaker Zest is being chartered to break a lane through the floes lying off Angmagssalik, as this is considered the only available landing spot on the east Greenland coast.

"Our hands are tied," Lieutenant Smith told International News Service. "There is nothing for us to do but to wait until a base is established and there is a belt of open water where we can land. Also we must have supplies."

Smith had been hopeful that the delay might not be over five days, but he said today he did not know how long it would be.

It is considered too great a risk for the flyers to omit the stop at Angmagssalik, because it is about 850 miles from Reykjavik to Iceland, the next stopping place and the planes have a fuel capacity for only 960 miles.

The weather here has been favorable for flying and only the ice floes off Greenland coast have prevented the intrepid Yankees from continuing their air voyage homeward.

There are three American warcraft in the harbor. When conditions are ready to resume the globe girdling journey they will take up their stations along the route.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 7.—In command of Lieutenant George F. MacDonald, and Victor F. Bartrandias, a Douglas cruiser plane left Langley Field, United States army air station, at eight a. m. today via Keyport, N. J., and Boston for Pictou harbor, Nova Scotia, where it will be turned over to Lieut. Leigh Wade, round the world U. S. army flyer on his arrival there aboard the cruiser Richmond. The plane will reach its destination tomorrow night.

It will be rechristened "Boston II" when Lieutenant Wade resumes his flight westward at Pictou harbor.

The air distance between Norfolk and Pictou Harbor is approximately 950 miles.

St. Paul, Aug. 7.—Going insane on a Great Northern train, N. J. Lindberg, 40, grabbed a heavy wrench from a heater kit and went through the coach striking passengers on the head with it. Lindberg leaped from the train at Cass Lake. He was next heard from at the home of Charles Richards. The insane man struck Richards over the head with the wrench, dragged him into the yard and beat Richards' head to a pulp, leaving him dead. Lindberg then went to the home of Nick Schauter, Cass Lake, where he obtained firearms and ammunition.

Roy Jondahl was Lindberg's next victim. Jondahl and Severen Hole were looking for the madman at a place south of town. They stopped their car to speak to a heavily armed stranger, who proved to be Lindberg. Lindberg shot Jondahl in the stomach and groin. He returned the fire and struck Lindberg in the hip. Lindberg then turned his gun upon himself and committed suicide. Jondahl was brought to the hospital here, fatally wounded.

Passengers on the train injured by Lindberg's wrench included T. J. Evans, train conductor. Lindberg's home was in Portland, Ore.

Xenians Suffered On Hottest Day
The long heat wave, three days in length, which has gripped Xenia since early Monday morning was at last broken Wednesday night when thunder showers promised by weather forecasters for several days and long overdue, broke about 8:30 o'clock.

The high mark in temperature was broken when thermometers over the city registered 94 degrees at 4 o'clock. This is a new high mark for the summer, the best previous mark being June 6 when the temperature reached 93 degrees.

UNITED STATES WILL NOT DISCUSS WAR DEBTS NOW

This Government Will Participate In Proposed Conference Of Ministers Of Finance In Paris.

London, Aug. 7.—The allied council of fourteen of the reparations commission this afternoon reached an agreement with Germany upon the report of committee number one dealing with procedure to be taken in event Germany is charged with defaulting her obligations under the Dawes plan. No changes were made in the report of the committee as published.

London, Aug. 7.—Ambassador Frank B. Kellogg's letter, announcing that the United States will participate in the proposed conference of ministers of finance in Paris after the conclusion of the London reparations commission does not mean that the United States is willing to discuss reparations debts, it was explained at the American embassy this afternoon.

The United States refuses to discuss war debts at this time, maintaining they are definite financial obligations which do not admit of discussion except as to the manner in which they shall be paid.

It is understood here that the conference will be confined to discussion of the deliberation of man reparations. The United States is particularly interested in this due to monies owing on account of the upkeep of the United States of occupation on the Rhine.

Every effort is being made to speed up the work of the allied reparations conference. A committee of experts examining the German reply, representatives of England, France, Belgium and Germany are conferring formally upon proposals which are regarded as being outside the scope of the formal conference.

Chief of these questions is avowed of the Ruhr.

DON'T WRITE NAMES OF CANDIDATES ON OPPOSITE BALLOTS

"May I write in the name of a Republican on a Democratic primary ballot?" asked Mr. Earl Short, clerk of the board of elections. The answer is an emphatic "no," if the voter wishes his or her vote to have any effect.

Many voters believe if they vote for a Democrat on a Republican ticket the vote will be added to the votes he receives on his own ticket thus raising his total, according to Mr. Short. This is not the case. If the candidate receives enough votes on the ticket of opposite politics to nominate him, he would receive the nomination on a ticket of the wrong political persuasion but the votes would not be added to the votes received on his own ticket in order to guarantee nomination by his own party.

Thus the candidate has to be voted for on his own ticket, and voters can accomplish nothing by writing the name of a Democratic candidate on a Republican ticket or a Republican candidate on a Democratic ticket.

MRS. EMMA REIBOLD DIES IN DAYTON

Mrs. Emma M. Reibold, 84, formerly of this city, wife of Frederick Reibold founder of the Teutonia National Bank and the Reibold business block of Dayton, died Monday night at 9 o'clock, at her home in the Gibbons Hotel, Dayton.

Funeral arrangements will not be made until the arrival of Mrs. Robert Craig-McHarrow, her daughter, who is now aboard the Cunard liner Berengaria, which sailed from Southampton, England, last Saturday.

Mrs. Reibold's death was the result of a complication of diseases and came after a lingering illness, that had confined her to her rooms for years.

She was born June 6, 1840 at Portsmouth, O., the home of her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. William Simmons. About the time of the outbreak of the Civil War she accompanied her father to Dayton to accept a pastorate there.

After her marriage to Mr. Reibold, one of the first persons to erect a business block in Dayton, she and her husband lived in Belmonte Park, Dayton View, and later moved to 217 North Ludlow Street. When her husband died in 1904 Mrs. Reibold took up residence in the Gibbons Hotel and resided there until her death.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. McKerrrow, one grandson, Frank Reibold, survives. A son, Frank S. Reibold, died last June 11.

Mr. Shanklin is an able speaker and pled with the people to come together and stop being the "Uncle Tom" Negro. He said there would be many a doubt as to his election. He paid tribute to the late Hon. Charles Young, of the U. S. Army and to the Boys of the Spanish American War in which he was a soldier, and to the World War Veterans, who went and fought for Democracy. He also said that thousands had come from the southland to hover under the arm and protection of their northern brethren and for them to use the ballot or return to the southland where they did not need it.

Facts About Child-birth

It has been proven conclusively that much of the suffering, pain and dread experienced during expectancy, as well as at child-birth is entirely unnecessary.

An eminent physician, Dr. J. H. Holmes, expert in this science, first produced the great remedy "Mother's Friend," which aids the muscles and tissues to expand more easily, during the constant readjustment, month after month, right up to the climax of child-birth.

"Mother's Friend" is applied externally. Three generations of expectant mothers have used it. "Pains disappeared in two days after using 'Mother's Friend,'" writes a user. "I owe my life to 'Mother's Friend,'" declared another. Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did, start today and experience the wonderful comfort it will give you.

FRANK A. JACKSON POINTS TO RECORD IN OFFICE IN ASKING FOR HIS SECOND TERM

Frank Andrew Jackson, candidate for re-election as treasurer of Greene County.

Reared at Cedarville, Mr. Jackson was graduated from the high school there and then entered his father's coal and lumber office in that place. When twenty-one years of age, he was elected clerk of his home township, a position he filled by consecutive re-elections for thirteen years. He also for a time operated the Opera House at Cedarville and was otherwise active in the affairs of his home town.

Mr. Jackson is one of the real "Old Hickory" Jacksons, his great-grandfather having been a brother of Andrew Jackson, the hero of the battle of New Orleans and seventh President of the United States.

He also is a member of one of Greene County's oldest families, his father, the Hon. Andrew Jackson, former member of the legislature from this district, being a son of General Robert Jackson, who settled on Clark's Run, three miles west of Cedarville in 1805 and who in 1811 was commissioned general commanding the militia forces of this district.

Andrew Jackson, father of Frank A. Jackson, was elected to represent this district in the sixty-eighth General Assembly and was re-elected for the succeeding term. He was later chosen sergeant-at-arms of the House and was re-elected to that office six succeeding years. At the last session, that of the seventy-sixth, he received the vote also of the Democrats, a compliment said to be unparalleled in the annals of the legislature.

For two terms during his father's service in the state legislature Frank A. Jackson served as a legislative clerk and for three years thereafter was engaged as an agent of the Ohio Fuel Supply Company, buying rights-of-way between Columbus and Cincinnati.

During the incumbency of Sheriff W. B. McCallister, Mr. Jackson was appointed deputy sheriff of Greene County and in the campaign of 1914 received the Republican nomination for the office of sheriff. He was elected that fall and so satisfactory were his services that he was re-nominated and elected in 1916.

He succeeded Mrs. Carrie Faulkner who was appointed county treasurer to fill the unexpired term of the late John McVay, at the last election.

Mr. Jackson and Miss Edna Townsley, of Cedarville, were married December 21, 1914. Both the Jackson and Townsley families are of pioneer stock of the county and have been members of the United Presbyterian denomination since the "union" in 1858, having previously been of the old Associate communion.

He has had one successful term in office and has made hosts of friends throughout the county by his genial accommodating manner and efficient conduct of the affairs of the office. His many friends believe he is rightfully entitled to the usual courtesy of a second term.

CORRECTION

The number of bonus claims handled by the Greene County Chapter of the American Red Cross during July was 174 instead of 1721, as announced.

ELKS TO MEET

Members of the Xenia Lodge of Elks, and their families and friends will not participate in the twenty-sixth annual convention of Ohio Elks at Cedar Point, Lake Erie, on August 25 to 30, it was said by local officials Thursday.

Large Red Pimples On Face And Body Cuticura Healed

"My face and almost my entire body broke out with pimples. They were large and red and after festering, scabbed over. They itched and burned and my clothing aggravated the breaking out on my body. It was almost impossible to sleep at night due to the intense irritation. I tried several remedies but to no avail. A friend advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I purchased some. After a week's treatment my skin showed signs of clearing, and the itching and burning were relieved. I continued the treatment and in about a month I was healed, after using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment." (Signed) Miss Alice C. Kalozi, 18406 Neff Rd., Cleveland, Ohio.

For every purpose of the toilet and bath, Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum are excellent.

BACK TO EUROPE ON OUR OWN TERMS

Observers of the Interallied Conference saw far-reaching historical significance in the agreements signed on Saturday morning in London. There is no doubt of their significance to Europe, and they are equally significant to Americans. They mean that Europe's five-year effort to bring America back to the Old World has succeeded and that Americans, however "unofficially," have gone back on their own terms that give them a staggering amount of "unofficial" power.

What has happened is the virtual abdication of the Old World in favor of the New. Whether in the long run this makes for good or for evil for herself, America has arbitrated the Allied quarrel. In addition, she has agreed, unofficially, to referee, umpire and further arbitrate the weary business of carrying out the settlement she unofficially proposed.

For reasons familiar to the world for five years, the Allies left to themselves were unable to deal jointly with the Germans. Britain's interests clashed with those of France; French interests clashed with the British. In the resulting deadlock, nothing was settled. There had to be an arbitrator.

That has been the American role. This was the real business of the Dawes committee. Its report was not pro-English, pro-French or pro-German; it was pro-settlement. It sought compromise and arbitration just as the "unofficial" American representatives at London have arbitrated and compromised allied differences.

Ten years, almost to the hour, from the day the Germans declared war against France the Allies agreed on a 'Made-in-America' settlement program. Today, ten years after the British declaration of war against Germany, German delegates come to London to receive that program. America did not win the war, but without our money and man-power it might have been lost.

HUGHES JUST IN TIME TO HELP

The presence of Secretary Hughes in Berlin at the psychological moment of the departure of the German delegates for the reparation conference at London, was regarded as of the highest importance to an accord.

It became much more than a mere courtesy call before his return to the United States this week. The influence of the American statesmen on German official opinion was held inevitable. Its effects were expected to be revealed in the German attitude at London, where the allied program for operation of the Dawes plan will be discussed.

Primarily because of the presence of Mr. Hughes in conference with German officialdom, Washington could not agree with that element of French opinion which was pessimistic about Germany's acceptance of the allied program. It could not accept the view of the always skeptical Pertinax that when Prime Minister MacDonald declared: "We are all agreed Satan alone can separate us," at that moment "Satan was packing his grips in Berlin."

Barring that vague possibility of a German refusal to sign the protocol, Secretary Hughes, as the diplomatic agent of the American Government, stood on the very threshold of the most notable achievement in the field of foreign relations since the Fourteen Points of President Wilson were accepted as a basis for an armistice and the "cease-firing" order ran down the lines from the Alps to the Channel.

Completion of the political performance essential to the successful operation of the recommendations of the Dawes committee was viewed here as of inestimable psychological importance to the economic future of the United States, no less than that of Europe.

"POWER" IS PROGRESS

For the first time the English people are realizing that other nations are beating them in the race for cheaper power. The 400 papers that were delivered at the World Power Conference recently at Wembley have now been printed and studied by British engineers and manufacturers. They prove beyond all doubt that England has been left behind by three or four other countries in the matter of electrical development.

The facts and figures presented at this conference took the wind out of the British engineers. Several of the papers were over their heads. They were stunned at the description of vast superpower companies which gather up power and distribute it as a bank gathers and distributes money.

The amazing story of electrical development in Switzerland was told for the first time at this conference. It surprised Americans and English alike. It appears that Switzerland is now further advanced electrically than any other country in the world.

THE GOOD WORLD

The Lord must have liked us, I say
when I see
The bloom of the rose and the green
of the tree,
The flash of the wing of a bird flitting
by,
The gold of the grain and the blue of
the sky,
The clover below and the tall pines
above,
Oh, there's something about us the good Lord must love.

The Lord must have liked us, I say
when I stand
Where the waves like an army come
into the land,
With the gulls riding high on the
crest of the breeze
And the ducks flying north in their
echelon V's,
The sun slipping down into liquified
gold—
Oh, it's then the great love of the
Lord I behold.

The Lord must have liked us, I say
at the dawn
When the diamonds of dew gleam and glow on the lawn,
And the birds from their throats pour
the red wine of song
As if life held no burden of sorrow
or wrong:
The Lord must have loved us, I
whisper just then
To give such a world to the children
of men.

One of the sweetest things that one can make for a baby, is a knitted shoulder comfort, or bed jacket, which consists of one long strip which is doubled at either end to form short sleeves for the arms to go through. Materials are: two balls of three-fold fingering yarn or ripple wool (costing about 50 cents a ball), one pair of three and a half bone needles and also one pair of five and a half bone needles (these cost around 25 cents a pair, generally, although prices differ in different localities.)

Terms: K means knit. P means purl. N means narrow (that is, knit two stitches together as one stitch). St. means stitch. S. C. means single crochet. D. C. means double crochet (that is, thread over the needle, draw up a new loop, draw through two and through two).

Using the three and one-half size

needle, begin by casting on 40 stitches. K two, P two for two inches, making the cuff. Widen one in every other st. by knitting both the front and the back of the st. Knit these 60 stitches for six rows, then change to the five and one-half size needles and knit till the entire work is 17 inches long (or longer, if desired, for a large infant). Now change back to the smaller needles and knit six rows. On the next row narrow at every other st. so with two inches of K two, P two. Bind that there will be 40 in all, and finish off loosely. Sew up the cuffs and one and one-half inches beyond (to make a sleeve.)

Finish one edge with scallops to within four inches of the cuffs, the scallop consisting of one single crochet in the second space and four double crochet in the second space beyond; repeat to the end. Form the collar by turning the scalloped edge back two inches at the middle. Put a fancy bow of ribbon at the ends of the collar, and run the ribbon through at the neck for ties in front.

These pretty and useful little shoulder comforts may also be made with dainty quality of flannel or with chalis, in the same manner. The crochet directions given above are for a garment.

HUSBAND SAID WHY NOT TRY IT

Wife Said She Would. Result, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well and Strong

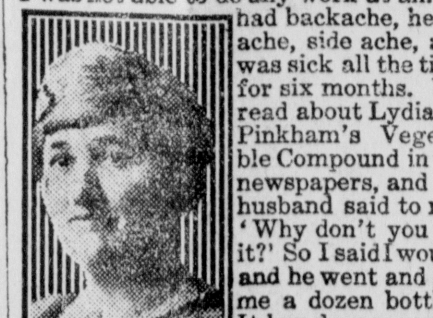

East Hardwick, Vt.—"Last winter I was not able to do any work at all. I had backache, headache, side ache, and was sick all the time for six months. We read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers, and my husband said to me, 'Why don't you try it?' So I said I would, and he went and got me a dozen bottles.

It has done me more good than I can ever tell, and my friends say, 'What have you done to yourself? You look so well.' I tell them it is the Vegetable Compound that makes me so well and strong. There is no use to suffer with backache and pains. I will tell every one what it has done for me."

—Mrs. FRED, PRIMO, Route No. 2, East Hardwick, Vermont.

Housewives make a great mistake in allowing themselves to become so ill that it is well-nigh impossible for them to attend to their household duties.

In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, 98 out of every 100 report they were benefited by its use. For sale by druggists everywhere.

THE FINGERS OF FAITH

The fingers of the hand are very expressive. I like to study hands. Fingers can do so much. They are the organs of so much service.

Wherever beauty is there you may see the finished touch of fingers.

I thought of this the other day when the papers extolled the life of Mrs. "Jack" Gardner who recently died in Boston and gave her wonderful collection of art and handwork to the city. Her gift meant the living of beauty for centuries through what fingers had done.

In this connection I have been thinking of the fingers of Faith—fingers that reach out into the unknown that they may touch realities and thus enliven and make real the measure of our work and desires.

The fingers of Faith reach! They know that there is something tangible in this world and are not afraid to risk and grope.

As the fingers of a mother reach about and warm the tiny baby that has come out of her heart, so do the fingers of Faith reach and warm the deepest longings of our souls.

On my library table is a beautiful bronze. It's the figure of a little girl called "Pippa Passes." Its slender arms are reaching upward. The fingers are spread and point to something higher. They typify the fingers of Faith.

Faith is something very deep within that is always looking higher—higher and higher.

Without this urge within us we should fall by the way. We should falter to fall. We should wonder without being willing to go on. But the fingers tell us to look higher, to take heart, to believe.

God is always at the end of each finger of Faith.

And God means love, happiness and the thing most worth while in this world.

Modish Mitzi—Aidelaide Sends Mitzi Style News From Abroad By Jay V. Jay

Adelaide, you will remember, is spending her honeymoon abroad. Her letters to Mitzi are mostly illustrations. This one, for instance, she sent to Mitzi after seeing the races. She writes that long sleeves are the thing, long and tight. And tunics are used. Banded with fur.

"—and Mitzi (she writes,) I saw the most stunning gown at Lang-champ, tight lace sleeves and a collar of the same lace. The girdle was of lace and the same material of the dress combined. It is so smart and you can't get half the idea from the picture here."

"—my dear (writes Adelaide), you don't know how much the unbelted tunic is being worn. One of the smartest gowns that ever stepped inside the Casino at Deauville was like the picture I have drawn. It is about as straight as anybody could make it. And notice that the sleeves are tight and long."

Mitzi has the latest thing, not even Paris can baffle her. She is overjoyed to think that without being at the center of the world's fashion creators, she has been able to forecast styles so closely that she is wearing at home what is being worn abroad.

SAY MESSENGER WILL BE NOMINATED FOR STATE SENATE

Optimism reigned in the camp of Dr. A. C. Messenger, candidate for the Republican nomination for state senator, Thursday, as to the success of the campaign, the local physician is making for the office.

"Dr. Messenger will receive the nomination," his friends confidently predicted. They said that reports filtering in from various sections of the fifth-sixth senatorial district, comprising the counties of Greene, Ross, Fayette, Highland and Clinton, showed Dr. Messenger is gaining ground, one enthusiastic supporter declaring: "the unprejudiced judgment of those, who have thoroughly canvassed the situation is that Dr. Messenger will be nominated, next Thursday by an overwhelming vote."

Friends of the doctor point to his record as proof of his fitness for the office, he is seeking. They say that this shows his interest in community welfare and indicates the type of administration of the office of state senator, he will give if elected.

Among other things they are calling attention to are: that he was a member of the Xenia City School Board for twelve years; that he was appointed health officer of Xenia and served eight years; that he was the first president of the Greene County Automobile Club; that he was for twelve years resident physician of the O. S. and S. O. Home; that he has been president of the Greene County Masonic and Shrine Club, that he has been a member for more than thirty years of the official board of the First Presbyterian Church; that he was a member of the draft board during the war, and later was commissioned captain in the Army Medical Corps; that he is a member of several fraternal organizations, and that he has been prominent in medical circles.

EIGHTY FIFTH ANNUAL FAIR DRAWS CROWDS OF PLEASURE SEEKERS IN SPITE OF WEATHER

Greene County Fair, over three-quarters of a century old, celebrated its eighty-fifth anniversary in a fashion similar to a gay centennial on his birthday.

This annual renewal of the Greene County Agricultural Society dates back to the palmy days of 1839.

Hundreds of people attended the events Wednesday regardless of the sun's sweltering rays that played continually over the grounds until late in the afternoon.

All of the time-worn features that go with a fair were present, the merry-go-round, ferris wheel, soft drink dispensers, chickens, hogs, cattle and freaks of the side shows. There are also many new features this year.

Granges in Greene County exhibited their wares. There were five Granges represented: Charity Grange, Beaver Creek Township, Beaver Grange, Caesarcreek, Xenia and Jamestown Granges. Premiums are awarded by the County Agricultural Society for the best Grange Agricultural and horticultural displays.

A health exhibit comprising moving pictures demonstrating health conditions, with a series of health talks between pictures, is a feature of the Fair. The local health department is giving the display in co-operation with the Ohio State Department of Health from where the films were obtained.

The Red Cross booth, is giving demonstrations on child care Thursday and Friday.

Light attendance Wednesday, left the "great and glorious" midway somewhat deserted, as most of the patrons were race fans and were in the stands and lined along the fences of the track.

Ballyhoo men, with leather lungs and stentorian voices, earned their money Wednesday, coaxing the nickels from the natives. The operators of the merry-go-round and ferris wheel concessions did well though and should clean up Thursday.

One of the mechanical amusement features is the "whip," which was popular in Xenia in a street carnival several years ago. The amusement device offers a new thrill for jaded pleasure seekers and attracts as all new features do.

Two features of unusual educational interest are pictures of the Lorain tornado disaster and of the Woodrow Wilson memorial. For five cents the patron is permitted to look through a series of glasses, showing scenes of the tornado stricken city or pictures of the memorial.

Xenia merchants are taking advantage of the merchandising displays at the Fair, with everything from hardware to automobiles. Small concessions men sell whips and ticklers to the Fair crowds or fair maidens, with which to annoy passing swains. The great annual Greene County Fair is living up to expectations.

DAYTON CITY GOLF TOURNEY IS UNDER WAY

Dayton, August 7—Several last minute scratches marred the city tournament begun Thursday morning over the Community Country Club golf course.

Len Jordan, of the Hills and Dales club, who was to have played Vincent Hilton, present city champion, was forced to leave the city and will not be able to return in time to take part in the first day's play. C. T. Lawson, another entry, received a hurry call to leave for New York.

FORMER COMPANY F MEMBERS REUNITE AT WASHINGTON C. H.

Greene County members of the war-time unit, Company F, 330th Infantry, Eighty-Third Division, attended the second annual company reunion, held at Washington C. H., Wednesday.

Reunion headquarters were at Memorial Hall, where members of the Washington W. R. C. served both dinner and supper to the ex-soldiers. The privileges of the Washington Y. M. C. A. were open to the delegates and in the afternoon there was a swimming party in Paint Creek, near Washington.

Several of the local members of the outfit drove to Chillicothe in the afternoon to see Camp Sherman, where they spent the hard winter of 1917-1918 in training. They renewed acquaintances during the day with a general, informal get-together.

A business session was held at night and was followed by the singing of war songs. Officers elected at the reunion here last year were continued in office without another election. Dr. W. P. Edmunds, Washington C. H., former captain of the company and later promoted to Major, is president of the reunion organization.

The Rev. Havey E. Crowell, Gairfield, is chaplain. Dr. Edmunds appointed James Curlett, Xenia, chairman of a committee to arrange next year's reunion for this city.

XENIA DEFENDANTS IN DAMAGE ACTIONS WINNERS IN COURT

Judge Alfred McCray, of Dayton, in Common Pleas Court, Wednesday, upheld the verdicts of a jury which found for the defendant in two damage actions growing out of a triple auto collision on the Springfield-Urbana pike, about three miles north of Springfield, October 1, 1922.

The double-barrelled decision covered a $5,000 suit brought by Mrs. Jesse Miller, 311 Xenia Avenue, Dayton against Elmer Owens, of this city, and a $300 suit brought by Mrs. Miller's husband, Carl P. Miller against Owens. Mrs. Miller sued for personal injuries and Miller for damages to his machine.

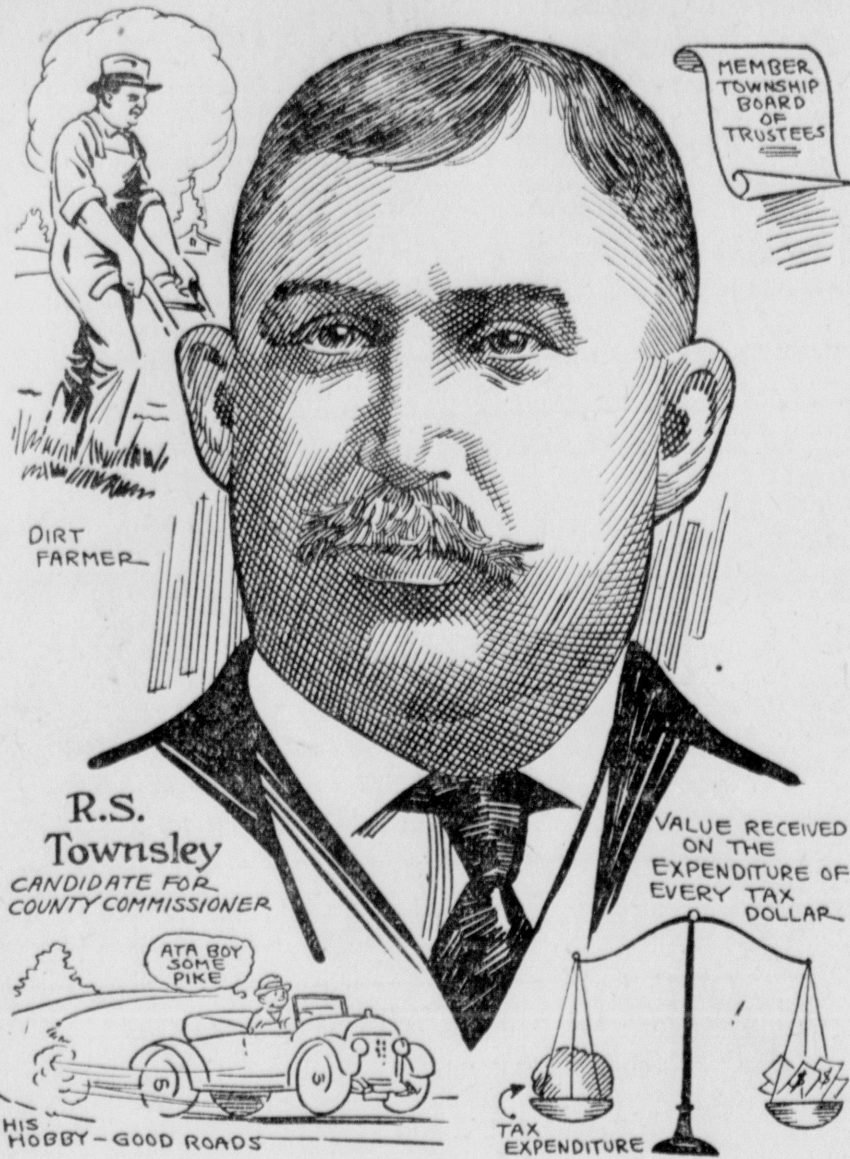

The jury returned verdicts Sept. 27, 1923 in favor of Owens. Judge McCray's decision overrules the plaintiff's motion for a new trial of the cases.

FORMER GREENE COUNTIAN DIES

Charles M. Cottrell, 63, of Snyder Terrace, Springfield, prostrated at his home Tuesday afternoon, died in the Springfield City Hospital, Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Cottrell was born in Cedarville, O., and went to Springfield when about 17 years of age. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Goldie Cottrell, two sons, Don and James and two daughters, Margaret and Mrs. A. S. Baker of Springfield. Burial will be made at Clifton Cemetery.

R. S. TOWNSLEY, CEDARVILLE TOWNSHIP DIRT FARMER, SEEKING COUNTY COMMISSIONER JOB

R. S. Townsley, of Cedarville, born on a farm east of that place and a life-long resident of Cedarville township, comes before the electors of Greene County at the coming primary seeking the Republican nomination for County Commissioner.

Before locating in Cedarville, Mr. Townsley was engaged in the active practice of farming which he successfully conducted for many years, and which he yet supervises.

For years he was a member of the township board of trustees and it was during this public stewardship that his interest in public affairs was manifested. His record for service has merited the endorsement of the electors for several terms and also as a member of village council, however he declined to serve on the latter body.

His policy of value received on the expenditure of every tax dollar won for him the open endorsement of the tax payers in the eastern part of the county where his services were best known. As trustee he put forth every effort to keep the roads of the township in the best of condition, regardless of what ever sacrifice of time might be required of him personally.

Mr. Townsley has always been interested in public affairs and he comes before the voters with a clean record for faithful service. He has been a member of the Greene County Farm Bureau, and of the United Presbyterian Church of Cedarville.

Politically Mr. Townsley has always been a Republican. Judging from the quick response to his announcement as a candidate his many friends have assured him loyal support knowing that he is desirous of the honor he seeks and exceptionally well qualified for the office of county commissioner.

CLARK COUNTY FAIR MEN SIGN HORSES

C. A. Steele, secretary and John S. Prosser, president of the Clark County Fair, conferred with several owners and drivers of race horses at the Greene County Fair, Wednesday afternoon, in an endeavor to complete plans for the harness program to be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of the Clark County Fair.

The Clark County exposition will be featured by a merchants' and manufacturers' ware display and the landscape exhibit of Mark Aukeman, manager and owner of the Hollandia Gardens.

Besides her son, R. L. Hixon, Mrs. Hixon leaves one sister, Miss Rebecca Hixon, of Frankfort, O., and one-half brother, John Hixon, of Hillsboro, O. Funeral services will be held at the residence, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, standard time, with interment at Cedarville.

WOMAN DIES NEAR YELLOW SPRINGS

Mrs. Elizabeth E. Hixon, 79, passed away at the home of her son, R. L. Hixon, on the Jackson Road, north of Yellow Springs, Wednesday night at 12:30 o'clock. Death was caused by heart trouble. Mrs. Hixon had been ill six weeks.

Besides her son, R. L. Hixon, Mrs. Hixon leaves one sister, Miss Rebecca Hixon, of Frankfort, O., and one-half brother, John Hixon, of Hillsboro, O. Funeral services will be held at the residence, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, standard time, with interment at Cedarville.

GEO. B. HARRIS the Logical and Leading Candidate for GOVERNOR

Unselfish service to his community, his party, his state and his nation has marked the life of George B. Harris.

Born in Ohio, the son of a Union Army veteran, George B. Harris was orphaned at the age of seven and became a ward of the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home at Xenia.

George B. Harris worked for an education and won high honors at Ohio Wesleyan University. He then studied law at night while he taught mathematics by day and graduated from the Cleveland Law School.

George B. Harris has given generously to his community, his state and his party. The honored position he occupies in his home town has been rightfully earned. His entire career is assurance that he will capably and honorably fill the office for which he is a candidate.

OUT of the long list of candidates seeking the Republican nomination for Governor of Ohio, George B. Harris of Cleveland stands out as the one man whose name would strengthen the Republican state ticket; a capable man of real gubernatorial stature; a man who would make a Governor of whom Ohio could be justly proud.

George B. Harris is straightforward, fearless, practical and businesslike. He believes that citizenship is a sacred thing, a public office is a serious public trust and impartial law enforcement the plain duty of public officials.

For many years George B. Harris has taken an active and a leading part in the affairs of the Republican party in Ohio. His is the type of intelligent leadership which makes him undoubtedly the man best qualified for the office.

The nomination of George B. Harris at the Republican Primaries on August 12th, will unite all factions of the party and insure an overwhelming Republican victory in November.

MOTORISTS WARNED OF DANGER DURING MONTH OF AUGUST

Greater caution on the part of motorists during the month of August is urged by officials of the Greene County Automobile Club, which is endeavoring to curb the steady stream of accidents during the last two years. August, it is declared, is the danger month for fast and reckless driving. A larger number of motorists are out on the highways during August than any other month of the year, all trying to escape the sweltering heat, which usually prevails in that month, by auto rides.

At grade crossings particularly the fatalities mount up, warned the Auto Club. In grade crossing accidents, the motorists lost more lives with the trains during the month of August than any other month, statistics show.

SPRINGFIELD PIKE NEARLY FINISHED

The finishing touches are being put on the Springfield pike, it was announced by county officials Wednesday morning.

The contractors, Lewis and Copeland, of Lima, have completed work on the road with the exception of a small stretch, one half mile in length near Yellow Springs.

The cement work will be completed in about a week, it is said, but the pike will not be opened open for nearly a month after its completion in order to give the cement time to thoroughly set.

TWO CHARGED WITH RESISTING OFFICER

Lloyd Jones, Washington Street, was locked up at Police Headquarters Thursday charged with drunk and disorderly conduct and resisting an officer, following trouble said to have taken place at his home Wednesday night.

He was preparing Thursday to furnish bond for his appearance in Police Court to face the charges Monday morning. John Day, who was said to have involved in the trouble, voluntarily appeared before Police Judge E. D. Smith Thursday morning and gave $100 bond. Elmer Owens, wanted for the same offense, has not been found.

Police say Patrolman Fred Jones and Charles Simms went to the Jones home Wednesday night. Patrolman Jones entered through a rear door while Patrolman Simms watched the front door. The trio inside locked the door on Jones, and proceeded to take his club away from him and attempted to get his gun. Patrolman Simms, hearing the scuffle, broke a rear window and entered, Owens and Day fleeing by way of the rear door. Jones was arrested.

BRAKEMAN HURT

Walter Owens, of Cincinnati Ave., brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad, in the local yards, was bruised and cut and knocked unconscious for a time, when he was knocked from a car while switching with his crew in the Xenia yards, Wednesday night. Mr. Owens was riding on one car when another car "sideswiped" his train, knocking him from the freight car. He received a small, deep cut on his head and numerous bruises.

SNOW HILL CLUB TO BE READY SOON

Construction work at the Snow Hill Country club, near Wilmington, is far advanced and the club house is well under way. Completion of the golf course and purchase of a water system are being considered by the directors.

A campaign will be made to obtain twenty-five new members at once, which will complete the quota set for the opening of the club.

LOVE - OR FAME?

By
VIOLET DARE

AUTHOR OF "THE HALF-TIME WIFE"

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED.

DOROTHY LANE goes to New York to visit a friend and try to break into the movies. She soon gets started, and through the friendship of

LAWRENCE FRENCH, a young publicity man, gets an engagement with JOHN SEWARD, "the great lover of the screen," who falls in love with her and asks her to marry him. However, she cares more for French, but is not sure that he cares for her. She has an unfortunate experience with

ERIKHORN, one of the big producers, and decides to go back home and give up her career, when French gets her a part in a picture being made in the country by

CARL BANNING. French follows her to the country and proposes to her. Banning persuades them not to be married at once, and French goes back to New York. The star of the production,

CRYSTAL MAY, does all that she can to make things unpleasant for Dorothy. Crystal refuses to do a dangerous leap, and Banning gives that scene to Dorothy. Dorothy realizes that it will mean a great deal to her career if she does it, and goes through with it, though she is much frightened. Later she learns that Crystal has insisted on having that scene cut out.

"We'd have to shoot all your scenes over again, with a new girl, if you left us now. It would cause delay and expense and a lot of trouble. Stay till we're through, and I promise that your scenes will be finished as soon as possible, and you can get back to New York. And I won't forget you—maybe some day I can show my appreciation of what you've done. Now, how about it?" I wanted to do the right thing, of course; people always do want to, I suppose, only sometimes it's so hard that it seems impossible.

"We haven't any contract, of course," Mr. Banning went on, "but

TODAY'S INSTALLMENT. L—THE RIGHT THING.

"NOW, listen to me a minute," Mr. Banning answered, and the hand that he laid on my arm was so steady and cool that I had to listen in spite of myself. "If you do that you're going to queer this picture. And it concerns more people than you and Crystal—more people than you imagine. I know that Crystal has been a little beast about this thing, but if you're a thoroughbred and stick it out I know that you won't lose anything by it."

thoroughbred and stick it out I know that you won't lose anything by it.

I'd have given anything to have my promise back.

when Larry sent you to me the understanding was that you'd finish the picture—you aren't going to go back on that, are you?" That cleared everything up for me. Of course, I'd be going back on Larry's word as well as on my own—I wondered why I hadn't realized that before. "I'll stay," I told Mr. Banning, holding out my hand to seal the bargain. "I give you my word on it."

"Good!" he exclaimed, and then turned away, as some one shouted to him from the road. But even after he had started away he came back to say: "I appreciate this, Dorothy—I'm ever so much obliged to you."

Then I took Larry's letter out of my pocket—and when I finished it I'd have given anything to have my promise back from Carl Banning!

Tomorrow—One More Heartbreak.
